Filming and photography taking place today

By taking part or attending Relay For Life, all participants, volunteers and spectators confirm that they are happy for their names and any video footage, stills or photographs to be taken during the event by the committee, Cancer Research UK personnel, or a third party on behalf of the event organisers.

These images and/or footage may be used by the committee and Cancer Research UK to publicise this Relay For Life event on the committee's social media channels and for other uses in line with the Cancer Research UK's Relay For Life Event Rules. These can be read at cruk.org/relay-for-life-event-rules

These other uses could include use for commercial and/or fundraising purposes including, but not limited to, television broadcasts, advertising, publications, marketing material, merchandise, social media, personalised direct mail, social media and other documents that may be made available to the public.

Whilst photographers will try to obtain parental/legal guardian's consent before taking images where children are more than just incidentally included, this cannot be guaranteed. Please note we try to avoid close-ups of minors without parental consent.

If you have any questions about our filming, and in particular Relay For Life obtaining parental/legal guardian's consent, please contact us at contact@cancer.org.uk or by telephone at 0300 123 1026 (open Monday to Friday, 8am - 6pm.) Further details can be found in Cancer Research UK's Relay For Life Event Rules and on our website cruk.org/relay

Your details are safe with us. Check out our Privacy Policy at cruk.org/privacy. If you would like to change the way in which we communicate with you about our latest breakthroughs, campaigns and how you can support life-saving work, please contact us on 0300 123 3379 (Monday to Friday 8am–6pm) or email preferences@cancer.org.uk
