Overruns

Purpose Urban Outfitters, Inc. is obligated to purchase up to 5% over and above individual purchase orders, providing that merchandise is made available to us at the same time as the main shipment and style/color/size ratios are maintained.

Note: Supplier requires no special authorization to ship foregoing goods to us.

Schedule To the extent that supplier has produced goods over and above this allowance, they must advise us, in which case, we may elect to negotiate the sale. Under no circumstances, however, are we obligated to accept such overages.

Procedure The following steps should be followed should we decline to accept overages, contractor is obligated to:

Step	Action
1	Deface all main labels and remove all Urban Outfitters/Anthropologie/Free People identification from the product, except logo buttons, embroidered treatments, etc., which are not readily removable. Refer to the "Defacing of Labels on Non-Conforming Product" section.
2	Hold seasonal goods for 180 days beyond last ex-factory date for given style. Authorization to sell off merchandise must be in writing by the appropriate URBN product manager.
3	Garments must remain and be sold within the country of origin. Garments cannot be transshipped to another country for disposal
4	Once provisions of Step 3 have been met, supplier may dispose of goods without further notice.

Cancelled Orders

Purpose The purpose of this procedure is to determine the appropriate actions to be taken, and the vendors prerogative to resell merchandise, when URBN exercises its right, under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, to cancel a purchase order prior to it having been shipped.

Schedule As stated in the Terms of Purchase Agreement, URBN may cancel any PO by written notice to the vendor before the cancel date on the applicable PO. URBN may cancel all or any part of any undelivered order if URBN's business is discontinued or substantially impacted in whole or in part by a cause beyond URBN's reasonable control, such as fire, flood, earthquake, storm, unusually severe weather, labor dispute, war, embargo, civil commotion, or governmental act.

Procedure The following steps should be followed should URBN cancel a purchase order, and the vendor elects to exercise their right to re-sell the merchandise. Vendor shall not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any cancelled merchandise without URBN's express written agreement. The vendor is obligated to:

Step	Action
1	Deface all main labels and remove all Urban Outfitters/Anthropologie/Free People identification from the product, except logo buttons, embroidered treatments, etc., which are not readily removable. Refer to the "Defacing of Labels on Non-Conforming Product" section.
2	Hold seasonal goods for 180 days beyond last ex-factory date for given style. Authorization to sell off merchandise must be in writing by the appropriate URBN product manager.
3	Garments must remain and be sold within the country of origin. Garments cannot be transshipped to another country for re-sale
4	Once provisions of Step 3 have been met, supplier may proceed with the off-price sale of the merchandise.
