Contents

Acknowledgments ..... xvii

Chapter One. Introduction

1.1 Who Needs This Book? 1
1.2 Expert Testimony 1
1.3 Who Can Testify as an Expert? 2
1.4 Admissibility 3
1.4.1 Area of Expertise 3
1.4.2 Scope of Opinion 5
1.4.3 Bases for Opinion 6
1.4.4 Level of Certainty 8
1.4.5 Artificial Intelligence Assistance 9

Chapter Two. Credibility

2.1 The Expert as Teacher 11
2.2 The Expert's Overview 12
2.3 Decision-Making 13
2.3.1 Narrative Theory 14
2.3.1.1 Harmonization 14
2.3.1.2 Gaps 17
2.3.2 Story Framing 18
2.4 Credibility Variables 19
2.4.1 Rapport 19
2.4.2 Reporting Bias 20
2.4.3 Knowledge Bias 21
2.4.4 Fluency and Pace 21
2.4.5 Language of Expression 22
2.4.6 Artificial Intelligence Usage 23
2.5 Appearance and Demeanor 23

2.5.1 Positive Indicators 25
2.5.1.1 Confidence 25
2.5.1.2 Organization 27
2.5.1.3 Conversational Language 27
2.5.1.4 Varied Format 27
2.5.1.5 Illustration 28
2.5.2 Negative Indicators 28
2.5.2.1 Unnatural Responses 28
2.5.2.2 Speech Patterns 29
2.5.2.3 Attitude 30
2.5.2.4 Nonverbal Cues 30
2.6 Off the Stand 30

Chapter Three. Preparation

3.1 Introduction 33
3.2 Identifying the Issue 34
3.3 Transferring the Information 35
3.3.1 Pleadings and Court Papers 36
3.3.2 Documents 37
3.3.2.1 Too Much 37
3.3.2.2 Too Little 38
3.3.3 Deposition Transcripts and Discovery Responses 39
3.3.3.1 Deposition Transcripts 39
3.3.3.2 Discovery Responses 41
3.3.4 Assumptions 44
3.3.5 Stipulations and Judicial Admissions 45
3.3.6 Details 46
3.3.6.1 Chronology 46
3.3.6.2 Cast of Characters 46
3.3.6.3 History 46
3.3.6.4 Prior Statements 46
3.3.6.5 Opposing Experts 46

3.3.6.6 Opposing Counsel 47
3.3.6.7 Contrary Facts 47
3.4 Developing the Data 47
3.5 Organizing and Preparing the Opinion 48
3.5.1 Format 48
3.5.2 Writing a Report 49
3.5.2.1 Content 49
3.5.2.2 Organization 50
3.5.3 Visual Aids 52
3.5.4 Use of Artificial Intelligence in Preparation 52

Chapter Four. Discovery and Depositions

4.1 Introduction 53
4.2 Document Production and Written Interrogatories 54
4.2.1 Document Requests 54
4.2.2 Interrogatories 55
4.3 Discovery Depositions: Technical Details 56
4.3.1 Convening the Deposition 56
4.3.2 Persons Present 57
4.3.3 Sequence of Questioning 57
4.3.4 After the Deposition 57
4.4 Discovery Depositions: Lawyers' Goals 58
4.4.1 Information Gathering 58
4.4.1.1 Witness Cooperation 59
4.4.1.2 Questioning Technique 59
4.4.1.3 Responses 60
4.4.2 Limiting Future Testimony 61
4.4.2.1 Topic Exhaustion 61
4.4.2.2 "Freezing" Testimony 61
4.4.2.3 Pinning Down Testimony 62
4.4.2.4 Responses 63
4.4.3 Theory Testing 63

4.4.4 Developing the Record 64
4.4.5 Evaluating the Witness 64
4.4.6 Facilitating Settlement 64
4.5 Discovery Depositions: What to Expect 65
4.5.1 Preliminaries 65
4.5.1.1 Opening Formalities 66
4.5.1.2 Background and Education 67
4.5.1.3 Engagement and Fee 67
4.5.1.4 Preparation 68
4.5.1.5 Publications and Prior Statements 68
4.5.2 Substance 68
4.5.2.1 Research and Preparation of the Opinion 68
4.5.2.2 Opinions 69
4.5.2.3 Bases for Opinions 69
4.5.2.4 Assumptions 70
4.5.2.5 Explanations 71
4.5.2.6 Other Experts and Authorities 71
4.5.2.7 Omissions 72
4.6 Witness's Role: Coping with Counsel 73
4.6.1 Questions and Answers 73
4.6.1.1 The Universal Commitment 73
4.6.1.2 Arguing 75
4.6.1.3 Free Association 75
4.6.1.4 Compulsion to Answer 76
4.6.1.5 Mistakes 76
4.6.2 Attire and Demeanor 76
4.7 Making the Record 77
4.7.1 Objections 77
4.7.2 Instructions Not to Answer 77
4.7.2.1 Instructions to Experts 78
4.7.2.2 Testifying and Nontestifying Experts 79

4.7.2.3 Drafts of Reports 80
4.7.2.4 Protecting Other Clients 80
4.7.3 "Off the Record" 81
4.7.3.1 Colloquy 81
4.7.3.2 Conferences 82
4.7.3.3 Breaks 83
4.8 Evidence Depositions 83

Chapter Five. Direct Examination

5.1 Introduction 85
5.2 The Role of Direct Examination 85
5.3 Offering Expert Testimony 86
5.3.1 Introduction and Foreshadowing 86
5.3.2 Qualification 87
5.3.2.1 Technical Requirements 87
5.3.2.2 Additional Qualification 88
5.3.2.3 Tendering the Witness 89
5.3.3 Opinion and Theory 90
5.3.3.1 Statement of Opinion 90
5.3.3.2 Statement of Theory 91
5.3.4 Explanation and Support 92
5.3.4.1 Data 92
5.3.4.2 Assumptions 93
5.3.5 Theory Differentiation 94
5.3.6 Conclusion 95
5.4 Clarity and Credibility 95
5.4.1 Give Conclusions Before Explanations 96
5.4.2 Personalization 97
5.4.3 Plain Language 98
5.4.4 Avoid Long Narratives 99
5.4.5 Examples and Analogies 100
5.4.6 Internal Summaries 101

5.4.7 Enumeration 102
5.4.8 Consensus 102
5.4.9 Powerful Language 103
5.4.10 Do Not Stretch Expertise 104
5.4.11 Visual Aids 104
5.5 Objections 109
5.5.1 The Role of Objections at Trial 109
5.5.2 Types of Objections 109
5.5.3 Objections During Direct Examination 110
5.6 Redirect Examination 112

Chapter Six. Cross-Examination: The Basics

6.1 Introduction 115
6.2 Lawyer's Goal: Control 115
6.2.1 Telling the Client's Story 116
6.2.2 Minimizing the Expert's Impact 117
6.2.3 Controlling the Expert's Input 119
6.2.3.1 Incremental Questions 119
6.2.3.2 Sequenced Questions 120
6.2.3.3 Absence of Ultimate Questions 120
6.3 Witness's Perspective: Teach and Explain 121
6.3.1 Cooperation and Education 122
6.3.2 Integrity 122
6.3.3 Explanation 123
6.3.3.1 Invitations 124
6.3.3.2 Ambiguous Questions 125
6.3.3.3 Argumentative Questions 125
6.3.3.4 Characterizations and Conclusions 127

Chapter Seven. Cross-Examination: What to Expect

7.1 Introduction 129
7.2 Lawyer's Preparation 129
7.3 Challenging Credentials 130

7.3.1 Voir Dire on Credentials 130
7.3.2 Cross-Examination on Credentials 131
7.3.2.1 Limiting the Scope of a Witness's Expertise 131
7.3.2.2 Stressing Missing Credentials 132
7.3.2.3 Contrasting Credentials 132
7.4 Obtaining Favorable Information 133
7.4.1 Affirming the Other Expert 134
7.4.2 Eliciting Areas of Agreement 134
7.4.3 Criticizing Conduct 135
7.5 Learned Treatises 136
7.6 Impeachment 137
7.7 Challenging Impartiality 138
7.7.1 Fees 139
7.7.2 Relationship with Party or Counsel 139
7.7.3 Positional Bias 139
7.8 Omissions 140
7.9 Substituting Information 141
7.9.1 Changing Assumptions 141
7.9.2 Varying the Facts 142
7.9.3 Degree of Certainty 142
7.9.4 Dependence on Other Testimony 143
7.10 Visual Aids and Other Demonstratives 144

Chapter Eight. Cross-Examination: How to Cope

8.1 Introduction 145
8.2 Redirect Examination 145
8.3 Responding to Cross: General Principles 148
8.3.1 Cooperate as Much as Possible 148
8.3.2 Stay Calm 148
8.3.3 Think Before Answering 149
8.3.4 Understand the Question 150

8.3.5 Make Reasonable Concessions 151
8.3.6 Recognize the Legal Standard 152
8.3.7 Take Opposing Views Seriously 153
8.3.8 Read the Documents 154
8.3.9 Become Familiar with the Courtroom 155
8.4 Responding to Cross: Types of Questions and Answers 155
8.4.1 Full Sentences 155
8.4.2 "Yes" or "No" 156
8.4.3 Predicate Questions 156
8.4.4 Explanations First (The "Yes, But" Dilemma) 157
8.4.5 The Unexpected Negative 158
8.4.6 Learned Treatise 159
8.5 Responding to Cross: Trick Questions 160
8.5.1 Misdirection and Second-Guessing 161
8.5.2 Negative Pregnant: Loaded Questions 161
8.5.3 The Completeness Fallacy 162
8.5.4 The Perfection Fallacy 163
8.5.5 Partial Truths 164
8.5.6 Fees 164
8.5.7 "Your Lawyer" 165

Chapter Nine. Ethics and Professionalism

9.1 Introduction 167
9.2 Independence and Objectivity 169
9.2.1 Differences Between Lawyers and Experts 169
9.2.2 Working with Lawyers 170
9.2.2.1 Information and Assumptions 171
9.2.2.2 Suggestions and Questions 172
9.2.2.3 Trial Preparation 172
9.2.2.4 Scope of Expertise 172
9.3 Confidentiality 173
9.4 Loyalty and Conflicts of Interest 174

9.4.1 Unrelated Engagements 174
9.4.2 Switching Sides 176
9.5 Fees 177
9.5.1 Contingency Fees 178
9.5.2 Flat Fees, Minimums, and Advances 178
9.5.3 Lock-up Fees 179
9.5.4 Responsibility for Payment 180
9.5.5 Artificial Intelligence and Billing Practices 180
9.6 Discovery 181
9.6.1 Communicating with Adverse Counsel 181
9.6.2 Production of Documents 182
9.6.3 Depositions 183
9.6.3.1 Conferring Off the Record 183
9.6.3.2 Instructions or Directions 185
9.7 Trial Conduct 186
9.7.1 Ex Parte Communication 187
9.7.1.1 Judges 187
9.7.1.2 Jurors 187
9.7.2 Excluded Evidence 188
9.7.3 Third-Party Communication 188
9.7.3.1 Other Witnesses 188
9.7.3.2 Counsel 189
9.7.3.3 The Media 189

Index 191