ARCHITECTS & DESIGNERS 2026

AN Interior's Top 50 Architects and Designers list celebrates the most interesting architects and design firms producing interiors in North America. Now in its ninth year, this collection, researched by AN Interior's editors and based on their coverage, surveys the studios actively rethinking and advancing the field. From younger, smaller firms (some with just two employees) to established studios 80 strong, these are names to know.

From top: David Powers, Travis Bass, Donilee McGinnis, Steven Kent Johnson
