WORTEN AND BEEVERYCREATIVE SHOW OFF THE FIRST 3D PRINTER IN PORTUGAL

Worten, and partner BEEVERYCREATIVE, are going to be demonstrating the first 3D printer available on the domestic market this weekend at the Colombo store between 14h00 and 22h00. The Printer has already won the 2013 Product of the Year Award

After the Colombo store, the Norte Shopping Worten is going to be the next one (21st and 22nd December from 14h00 to 22h00) to welcome the BEEVERYCREATIVE team, who are going to offer visitors a first contact with 3D printing and its possibilities.

BEETHEFIRST is very simple to use, offers innovative design and is easy to carry. It was designed, developed and produced in Portugal by BEEVERYCREATIVE.

The demonstration is going to offer Worten customers the chance to see this revolutionary item which is being recognised around the world as a benchmark in desktop 3D printing.

The printer is on sale from Worten stores in Colombo, Norte Shopping and Cascais, as well as on www.worten.pt, for €2,220.
