WORTEN OFFERS ADMISSION TICKETS TO THE FUSING FESTIVAL ON FACEBOOK

A Worten is running a competition on its Facebook page between 30 July and 10 August (www.facebook.com/wortenpt), where it is giving away admission tickets to the Fusing Festival that is going to be held between 14 and 16 August in Figueira da Foz. Worten has 15 tickets to give away.

If you want to enter this competition, you have to prove you are a real party animal and answer the multiple choice question about the Fusing Festival that has 30 top billing performers such as Paus, Dead Combo, Capitão Fausto, Capicua, Slow Magic, Cícero, The Legendary Tigerman and Fachada.

Over and above the admission ticket competition period, Worten is also going to launch a campaign offering 20% off admission tickets to the festival. Plus, customers who have a Worten card also get free ticket insurance and pay no commission on purchasing their ticket

This is yet another proposal that makes Worten stand out, giving its customers and fans the chance of seeing some of their favourite bands.
