'LIKE US' BOYS BAND AT AUTOGRAPH SESSION IN OEIRAS WORTEN

Worten backs Portuguese musicians and new talent and next Sunday, 19 April, there is going to be an autograph session with "Like Us" at its Oeiras store starting at 18:00.

The thousands of fans who idolise Francisco, David, Daniel and João, the young singers who make up the boys band of the moment on the Portuguese music scene, are going to have a unique chance to be with their idols, have a few words with them and get a personalised autograph from the quartet.

'Like Us' exploded onto the music scene a year ago following a casting by Universal and the Panda Biggs channel. The four singers proved then that they were the best out of all the candidates from around the country.

Their single You Mean The World to Me and other original songs in English and Portuguese were taken from their début album 'Like Us', and their sights are now set on conquering the Portuguese music top ten.
