OUR VISITORS

For the many people in our local communities

Practical / routine-oriented

Solo visitors and families with children who value convenience, value for money and finding what they need in one place.

Social / fun-oriented

Solo visitors and families with children looking for entertainment, relaxation and enjoyable experiences.

People visit us for everyday needs, shopping, food, social time and experiences.

OUR ROOTS

From the forests of Småland

With IKEA, we share our founder, our vision, our values, our culture and part of our history too. What makes us different from one another are the ways our companies bring our vision to life.

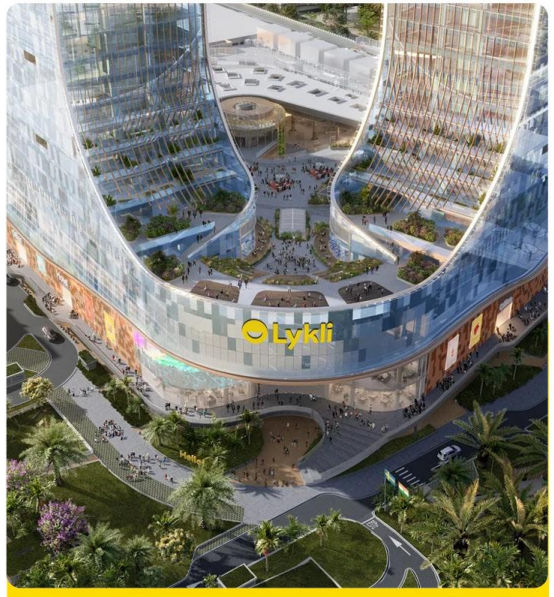
For retail, food, entertainment and service partners

Leasing

Our honest and responsive approach prioritizes commercial outcomes over pure financial metrics. We ensure every space delivers value and long-term growth.

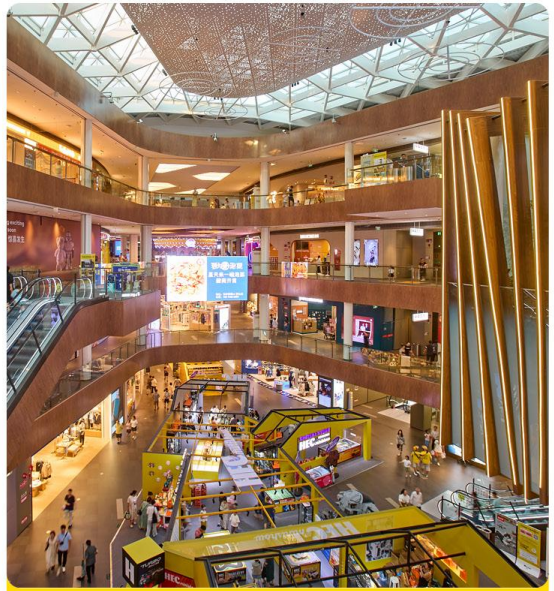
A supportive and reliable partner

We take time to truly understand your business needs and stay flexible along the way — always looking for solutions that work for both sides.



Access to thriving destinations

As a leasing partner, you get direct access to high-traffic meeting places with a proven ability to attract and retain visitors. Every year, we welcome millions of visitors across our network.



Long-term commitment

We have a long-term approach to both our assets and our partnerships. By continuously developing our meeting places and building trust-based relationships, we create the conditions for partners to grow.

Based on the 2025 Partner HQ Survey, where our partners highlighted what they value most about working with us.

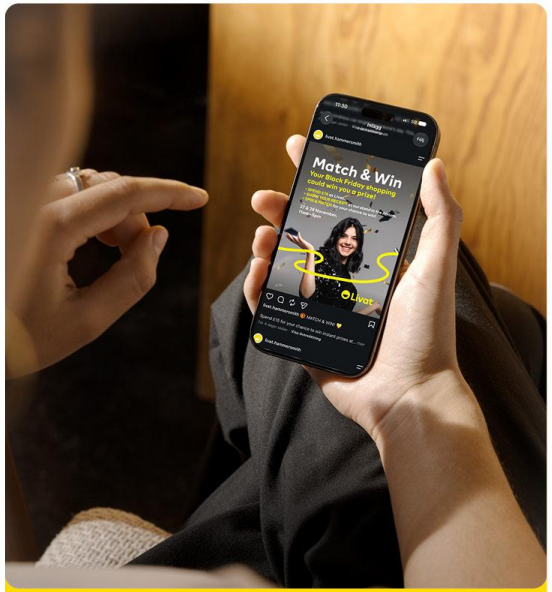
For brands, agencies and local businesses

Sales

We offer a high-impact advertising platform that delivers visibility and engagement.

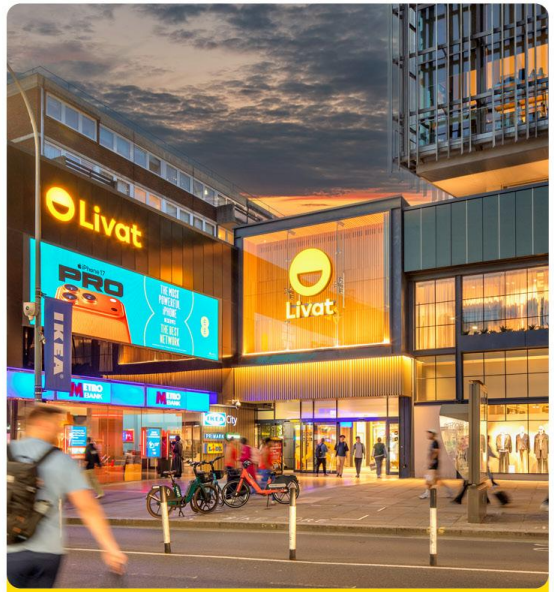


Engage millions online

Reach millions of potential customers through our owned channels — including 6M+ social media followers and 20M annual website visitors.

High-traffic exposure in our meeting places

Every year, we welcome millions of visitors across our network, supported by a media infrastructure of 600+ digital screens. This creates direct, impactful exposure in highly active retail environments.



Connect with loyal customers

Engage directly with our 6M+ loyalty members — a fast-growing community of frequent visitors and active shoppers who trust and interact with our meeting places.

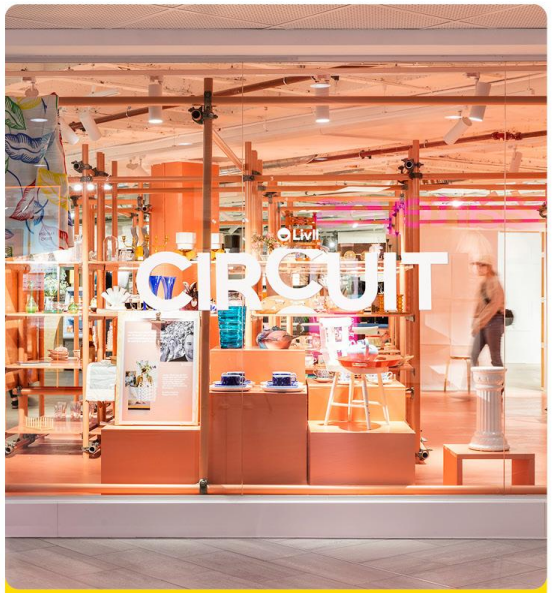
For startups, mixed-use, scale-ups and innovation partners

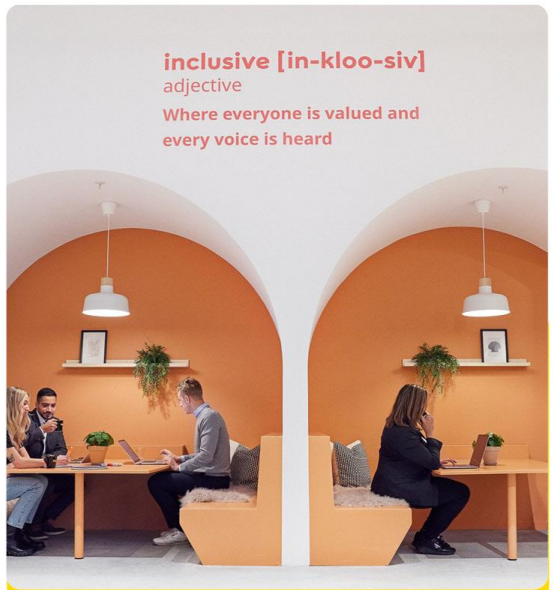
New business & innovation

Complementing our destinations, together with experienced partners we develop distinctive commercial concepts that drive footfall, spark new business opportunities and redefine customer experience.



Innovation & co-creation

We specialise in co-creating original commercial experiences that boost business while also giving customers more reasons to visit, again and again.



Stay local or scale if you like

With millions of visitors and diverse markets, we provide the perfect environment to test, pilot and scale new concepts.

Retail experts with a proven track record

We bring our retail experience to the development of new commercial concepts.
