THE PLACES YOU'LL GO

METEORA

One of Greece's most precious gems, this UNESCO-listed destination will impress you with its number of rock pinnacles topped with monasteries. Even though most are abandoned, a small few can still be visited.

INSTAGOLD: Just about any view of the scenic valley!

BELGRADE

Not a city you'll see on many lists for being pretty, Belgrade has been destroyed so many times that it still primarily remains a relatively new city. It is charmingly dominated by various styles of architecture, many historical sites, great local food, and warm people.

INSTAGOLD: The Savamala district with its distinct street art.

DAY 11 | BELGRADE

Explore Serbia's capital and delve into its history. Visit the Belgrade Fortress, Kalemegdan Park, St. Sava Cathedral, and a great variety of museums. Tito's Museum, the House of Flowers and the Ethnographic Museum are definite must-sees. (B)

DAY 12 | BELGRADE - SARAJEVO

We drive into Bosnia and Herzegovina and onto Sarajevo for a night out amongst top nightlife, live bands, and great food. Sarajevo is a melting pot of cultures and tonight is your chance to experience a city you'll never forget. (B)

DAY 13 | SARAJEVO

Today get to know the Bosnian capital and its incredible history. The best way to do this is on our optional tour of the city and its famous Sarajevo tunnel. Use the afternoon and evening to explore the Old Town bazaar and visit the Sarajevo Brewery. (B)

DAY 14 | SARAJEVO - MOSTAR - SPLIT

Today we head to Split with a stop in magnificent Mostar. We take an orientation walk around the city with its famous bridge and delve into Bosnian specialties for lunch. Then onto the coastal gem of Split to enjoy a final night out. (B)
