FALL IN LOVE WITH

POMPEII

Awe-inspiring UNESCO World Heritage Site lying in the shadow of Mt. Vesuvius. Its eruption in 79AD killed 20,000 people and caused it to be buried in ash and soot, preserving the city in its state. It is considered to be one of the best-preserved ancient cities in the world.

INSTAGOLD: Mt. Vesuvius, lurking in the background.

SORRENTO

The town features beautiful architecture, many cafes, restaurants and quaint little shops. Limoncello, one of the top souvenirs from the area, is a signature lemon liqueur that packs a punch. This is one of the best places to see it being made.

INSTAGOLD: All the cute lemon shops.

RAVELLO

Located in the hills above the Amalfi Coast, this peaceful little town boasts incredibly stunning views of the Bay of Salerno and the Mediterranean. The attractive Duomo, located in Vescovado Square, is not to be missed.

INSTAGOLD: The peaceful views of the Mediterranean.

AMALFI

The heart of the magnificent Amalfi Coast! This must-see town boasts an incredible cathedral and fabulous beaches. Don't leave without sampling the local pastries, gelato and delectable arancini. Preferably not at the same time!

INSTAGOLD: The 9th-century (yes, that old!) Amalfi Cathedral.

CAPRI

This small island in the Bay of Naples is rightly celebrated for its jaw-dropping scenery. The incredibly scenic chairlift ride to the top of Mt. Solaro and the guided boat tours with views that will make you lose your breath make it a firm passenger favourite.

INSTAGOLD: The views of Capri from the summit of Mt. Solaro.
