MEET THE ARTISTS

ILIJIA MIHAILOVIC

Ilija Mihailovic is a singer/songwriter and performing artist whose artistic persona finds inspiration in the areas of contemporary R&B, Soul, Gospel, Jazz, and Pop music. As someone who went through the finals of "The X Factor" (Balkan version) and has had an opportunity to perform at numerous music festivals and TV shows, Ilija is very knowledgeable when it comes to performing live, vocal technique, and band leadership.

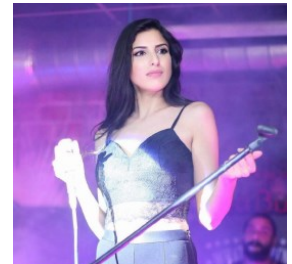

FINA

FINA is an Argentine singer, songwriter, and recording vocalist known for her dynamic presence in music. With a soulful voice and diverse musical influences, she captivates audiences with emotive performances spanning genres from pop to R&B and urban. Collaborating with esteemed artists like Luciano Pereyra and Lali, Josefina's talent extends beyond vocals, showcasing her skill as a songwriter. Her commitment to artistic excellence and storytelling through music continues to inspire audiences worldwide, solidifying her as a versatile force in the industry.

INES BELAYOUNI

Starting from a household immersed in Jazz and Arabic music, Ines embarked on her singing journey early in life. Her professional debut in 2013 saw her release "Ijik el Khir" alongside Sabry Mosbah, featured in Coca-Cola's documentary soundtrack. She later joined the UN Women project with "One Woman" and collaborated with Halim Yousfi on "Yesterday". Performing at prestigious venues like the Cairo Opera House and appearing on prime-time TV and radio shows, Ines continues to share her music worldwide.

MITCHELL LONG

Mitchell Long is a guitarist and singer with over 40 years of professional experience playing acoustic and electric guitars and singing in English, Portuguese and Cape Verdean Creole. Mitchell's musical roots are in American Jazz, Blues and Soul but he is widely known for his work in Brazilian, African and other world music styles.

NATHANIEL WILLEMSE

Nathaniel Willemse, born in Cape Town and raised in Melbourne, is a globally-minded artist with aspirations beyond boundaries. He channels influences from legends like Marvin Gaye and Prince to contemporary icons such as Justin Timberlake and Bruno Mars. Rising to fame on The X Factor, Nathaniel's distinct smoky tone propelled him to the Top 6 and earned him a triple platinum debut single, 'You,' followed by chart-topping hits like 'Live Louder' and acclaimed albums like 'Yours.' With over 3 million streams on his acoustic rendition of 'Peaches' by Justin Bieber, Nathaniel continues to captivate audiences worldwide. He's toured with luminaries like Mariah Carey and remains dedicated to evolving as a singer, songwriter, and producer. Currently based in Los Angeles, Nathaniel is gearing up for new music set to release in 2024.
