Regarding

 Claim Returned

Dear

I hope you are well.

I have asked my colleagues in the finance team to open the contingency budget in the system to allow the claims approved at the contingency panel to go through - to the value of £1,226. Once this has been completed, I will let you know. You should then be able to make the two claims.

In the meantime, please let me know if you have any questions.

Kind regards,

Account Manager

Dear [REDACTED]

This email is just to confirm that yesterday at our contingency panel the claims were approved. I have asked my colleague [REDACTED] to contact you next week so that she can work with you to process them (as they are being paid for out of a separate budget it will require a small amount of administration to get them processed).

I hope you have a lovely bank holiday weekend.

Kind regards,

Dear [REDACTED]

Please can we do 2.30 tomorrow, as I would like to take Mr Healey's claims to our contingency panel on Thursday - so need to talk to him and agree this approach before then.

Could you give me the best number for me to call Mr Healey on?

Kind regards,

Hello [REDACTED]

Unfortunately John's diary is already packed today but he has the following availability on Wednesday and Friday:

1430-1600 on Wednesday 20 May
Thursday – he has to be in Westminster all day
1415-1600 on Friday 22 May

Look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,
