

Rob Grein

A long-standing community Board volunteer and coach in recreational, competitive, and provincial levels of sport. Professional goal: To advance informed decision-making at an organizational level through the creation of innovative data analysis methodologies and applied technology platforms. Personal goal: To help, support, and develop young people in their life endeavours through education and sport.