

Kevin Yeanoplos, CPA/ABV, ASA

Kevin is a Shareholder and the Director of Valuation Services for Brueggeman and Johnson Yeanoplos, P.C., with offices in Seattle and Tucson that specializes in the areas of business and intellectual property valuation, financial analysis and litigation support. Over the last five decades, the AICPA Business Valuation Hall of Fame inductee has assisted clients around the country with the valuation of a diverse array of intangibles and businesses, whether it be for divorce or other litigation, financial reporting, gift and estate taxes, mergers and acquisitions or ESOP's, among others.

He frequently lectures throughout the United States on the topics of valuation, applied finance and financial analysis. Kevin has served in a diverse variety of volunteer positions, including Commissioner on the AICPA's National Accreditation Commission, Chair of the AICPA's ABV Credential Committee, Chair of the Arizona Board of Appraisal, a Commissioner on the Arizona Supreme Court's Commission on Judicial Performance Review, among others. He is currently serving as Chair of Arizona State Board of Accountancy Certification Committee.

Kevin is a prolific author, having contributed to Valuing Professional Practices & Licenses, Forensic Accounting in Matrimonial Divorce, Financial Valuation: Application and Models, Guide to Personal v. Enterprise Goodwill, The Comprehensive Guide to Economic Damages, and Reasonable Compensation: Application and Analysis for Appraisal, Tax and Management Purposes, among many others. He recently co-authored the Financial Expert Guide for Family Law Judges and Attorneys.

The Arizona Society of CPAs honored Kevin by naming him a Life Member, recognizing a lifelong commitment to integrity, technical competence and diversity in the profession while inspiring peers to take an active leadership role in safeguarding the duties and core values of the profession. When he's not chasing down the value of the invaluable, you can find Kevin running around the country on a 200 mile Ragnar Relay, using his business acumen as a board member for a local theatre or radio station, volunteering for the Special Olympics, advocating for royalty reform as a member of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences or interviewing the likes of Roger Daltrey, Cyndi Lauper and Brian Wilson for his music webzine, Trebled Minds. He's currently in the studio working on his third album, Love and Other Myths.
