Introduction

The Fall 2019 Semester was filled with some wonderful opportunities. We enjoyed the excellent teaching of Dr. Bill Creasy as our visiting professor for the semester. We are presently developing plans for another visiting professor coming for the Fall 2020 Semester. As the plans come into focus, I will share with you the details at a later date.

The interest and participation with the Bible in 90 Days far surpassed anything we could have imagined. What a joy it is to hear the many testimonies, discussions and questions generated by this bible reading program. As a follow-up on those questions and discussions, I will be teaching a class on Monday nights which will cover the time between the Old and New Testaments. I invite you to join me in learning about the 400 years, that some have called "silent," but have so much to say about how things changed with Israel when the New Testament opens up.

I have also asked Pastor Mofid to join me in a new class we call, Scriptural Questions for the Pastors. Here's your opportunity to ask the questions you have always wondered about when reading through your Bible. Start writing them down now. You can even send them to me ahead of time. This should be a fun class with lots of discussion!

As the new year begins, it's tradition to make your New Years Resolution. The number one resolution is to lose weight. Well, Pastor Bryan wants to help you keep your resolution. He will be teaching the class, Gain Energy, Get Healthy, on Wednesday nights immediately following our Wednesday night dinners. Talking about food, Cooking Teacher, Kimberley Scholte, returns with her much acclaimed class on Cooking a Passover Lamb. You can look forward to this one-day class immediately following our Maundy Thursday Service which includes a delicious lunch.

These are only a few of the offerings available to you this semester. Read through this Course Catalogue and sign up for a class on Angel's, or a Beth Moore Study on the Psalms, and even a study of Revelation.

Don't forget to sign the class roll sheet so that you can get credits with the College of the Bible.

The College of Marriage had a wonderful start and completes its final round of classes this semester. Since each class can stand on its own, if you haven't attended a class before, you still can this semester. It will be back, with a full round of classes again, in the Fall 2020 semester.

As always, I want to encourage you to be a part of our LifeGroup program. These groups are a fantastic way to get to know others, grow in your faith and go deeper in your walk with the Lord. If you feel God calling you to start a LifeGroup, give Kathy Wesley a call and she will get you everything you need to start a new group.

I serve you, as your Pastor of Discipleship, with gratitude for your support, and participation in our discipleship ministries. I pray a prayer of thanksgiving mentioning you in my prayers.

You can register on-line at:

In Gratitude,

Rev. John M. Scholte

What do they they represent? Do they appear? Do they give us personal insight about our work and worship? # LifeGroups

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing." - John 15:5

At RB Community our small groups are referred to as LifeGroups. This doesn't mean you are in them for "life" (although we do have groups that have been meeting for many years), but rather share life experiences together. As the above logo illustrates a cluster of grapes represent the individuals in a small group or LifeGroup. Each LifeGroup is connected to the "vine" through study and fellowship. All our groups together become a part of the LifeGroup ministry. It is through these small groups that a large church, such as ours, becomes small enough to care for each other. Most of these groups of 4 – 12 individuals meet in homes, the perfect place to connect, build relationships, encourage each other and feel cared for. These groups provide a safe place to share our faith, doubts, and concerns. The topics of discussion vary with each group. Social gatherings around food or local mission projects provide time for fellowship and service that strengthens group interaction.

In addition to ongoing LifeGroups, there are also several opportunities to participate in a group with a defined time length. If you are new to the small group concept these groups are a great way to meet others without a long term commitment, although it may develop into one. These groups are geared toward those with common interests or a desire to get better connected with others in our church congregation.

For more information about LifeGroups, to sign up for a group, or to suggest an idea for a future group, contact Kathy Wesley at lifegroups@rbcp.org.

Spring LifeGroups

Why not start the New Year by joining one of the short-term LifeGroups? These groups provide an excellent opportunity for meeting others in a smaller setting.

Following the reading of the Bible in 90 Days LifeGroup, several members of the group commented how much they enjoyed getting to know others, sharing the reading experience and feeling cared for as a part of the group. That's what LifeGroups are all about! For those interested in exploring such an experience consider a new 6-week LifeGroup entitled Made for Relationship. Who knows, it just may change your life.

Other short-term groups include a Book Club, All about Scraps, Coloring Cards and Line Dancing. Come check one out.
