

Audiotricz and Ecstatic, prominent figures in the hardstyle scene, have joined forces to pioneer a fresh sound known as PROGRESSIVE HARDSTYLE. Drawing inspiration from the golden era of progressive house, the duo aims to redefine the boundaries of melodic hardstyle.

Building on the success of collaborative hits such as "Wildest Dreams," "In Our Heads," and "Better," Audiotricz and Ecstatic have elevated their creative journey to the next level with the announcement of their forthcoming album, "PROGRESSIVE HARDSTYLE," scheduled for release later this year. They showcased their live act at Defqon.1 in 2023, the world's largest outdoor hard dance event and offered a sneak peek of the album at this year's Reverze, Belgium's ultimate indoor hard dance event.

PROGRESSIVE HARDSTYLE is more than just a sound; it has ignited a new culture among melodic hardstyle fans, creating an energy that resonates with today's generation.