V-Tech Solutions, Inc. Wins 2020 HUBZone Small Business of the Year Award

Washington, DC- On Friday, January 17th, V-Tech Solutions, Inc., won the 2020 HUBZone Small Business of the Year- Urban America award. The award was presented at the HUBZone Contractors National Council Industry Awards Gala held at Morgan State University. The purpose of the gala was to celebrate and raise awareness for the HUBZone program while highlighting the contributions and employment opportunities HUBZone companies bring to under-served communities. The keynote speaker of the night was Senator Chris Van Hollen (D-MD), a strong advocate for the HUBZone program and the small business community.

The 2020 HUBZone Small Business of the Year-Urban America award criteria included:

- Job Creation
- Economic & Social Impact
- Workforce Training & Development
- Community Involvement & Volunteerism
- Innovation & Technological Advancement

HUBZone Council Director, Michelle Burnett, presented the award to V-Tech Solutions Inc. President and CEO, Victor P. Holt exclaiming, "What this company has created within under-developed communities is nothing short of amazing!" Michelle spoke highly of Mr. Holt's work in policy, job creation, community development and service throughout his company initiatives.

Mr. Holt believes in the overall impact of the HUBZone program. "There are no other social-economic set-aside programs that promote job creation constituency, economic empowerment and overall welfare in this Nation like the HUBZone program. As a District based HUBZone company, V-Tech's social impact is far reaching. In 2019 alone we have created over 60 new jobs in DC, Alabama and Texas."
