AmeriHealth Caritas District of Columbia, Inc., Awards Targeted Outreach Contract to V-Tech Solutions, Inc.

Washington, DC – V-Tech Solutions, Inc., received a contract award from AmeriHealth Caritas District of Columbia, Inc. (“AmeriHealth DC”) to provide face-to-face and/or telephone community-based, targeted outreach to children and families in the DC Medicaid program. This project will support the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS), Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnostic and Treatment (EPSDT) benefits program that provides comprehensive and preventive health care services for children under age 21 enrolled in Medicaid. EPSDT ensures that children and adolescents receive appropriate preventive, dental, mental health, developmental, and specialty services.

V-Tech's outreach staff provide preventative healthcare education services and assist families with coordinating primary healthcare services for children covered by Medicaid. The AmeriHealth DC Medicaid program covers more than 52,000 children. “The goal of our outreach team is to drive healthy outcomes for the City's youngest citizens. We accomplish this by assisting parents, guardians, and independent young adults to schedule and attend healthcare appointments for their children or themselves,” said Victor P. Holt, V-Tech's President and CEO. “This is crucial work to ensure the health and welfare of children covered under the EPSDT program.”
