About the Creator

Ted McGrath, the mastermind behind Ted's Woodworking, is a certified master woodworker with more than 25 years of hands-on experience in the field.

Beyond his craftsmanship, Ted is also a skilled trainer, author, and an active member of the Architectural Woodwork Institute (AWI). Early in his career, he recognized the lack of detailed, practical resources for woodworkers, particularly for beginners who often struggled with incomplete plans and vague instructions.

Many traditional guides assumed access to expensive, specialized tools and omitted crucial steps, leaving users frustrated. Ted's vision was to create a comprehensive program that addresses these gaps.

By leveraging his expertise and real-world experience, he developed Ted's Woodworking, a resource that combines clarity, precision, and usability. His goal was to make woodworking projects achievable for everyone, regardless of skill level.

Today, his program reflects a deep understanding of woodworking principles, providing clear, step-by-step guidance and extensive resources that ensure users achieve professional-quality results.

Why Choose Ted's Woodworking?

Choosing Ted's Woodworking means gaining access to an unparalleled collection of resources designed to make woodworking easier, faster, and more enjoyable.

With over 16,000 plans, the program provides solutions for a wide variety of projects, ensuring that both beginners and experienced woodworkers can find suitable guidance.

Each plan is carefully constructed with clear diagrams, step-by-step instructions, and detailed material lists, allowing users to reduce errors, save money, and efficiently complete projects.

The inclusion of tutorial videos further enhances learning, enabling users to master techniques at their own pace.

Additionally, Ted's Woodworking offers lifetime access, monthly updates, and multi-device accessibility, giving users the flexibility to work from home or on-the-go.

The program also supports custom project plans, providing personalized assistance when needed.

Whether the goal is to craft furniture, build outdoor structures, or refine woodworking skills, Ted's Woodworking is designed to ensure consistent success, making it a reliable, comprehensive choice for anyone passionate about woodworking.
