Upon Licensee's request and Fitch's prior written consent, Fitch may, in its sole discretion, permit Licensee to download the Program to additional computers under Licensee's exclusive control.

- 5.2 The failure of either party to exercise in any respect any right provided for herein shall not be deemed a waiver of that right or any other right hereunder. Licensee may not assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement and any attempted assignment or delegation shall be null and void.
- 5.3 All disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement, its performance or to the Program, whether arising in contract, in tort, under statute or otherwise shall, to the maximum extent permitted by law, be determined exclusively under the laws of the State of New York (without regard to its conflict of laws provisions), and the Licensee agrees and consents to the exercise of personal jurisdiction over the Licensee by any state or federal court of law or equity located in the Borough of Manhattan or New York County, New York, U.S.A. The Licensee shall not initiate any legal proceeding relating to any such dispute in any jurisdiction other than in the state or federal courts located in the Borough of Manhattan or New York County, New York, U.S.A. - 5.4 With respect to a breach or threatened breach by the Licensee of any provisions of this Agreement regarding the ownership, use, copying, distribution, confidentiality or nondisclosure of the Program, Fitch would suffer continuing and irreparable injury to its business as a direct result of such breach so the Licensee consents to entry of any injunctive relief necessary to prevent or cure such breach (including temporary and preliminary relief, and relief by order of specific performance), without posting of bond or other security or proof of irreparable harm.
- 5.5 This Agreement does not and is not intended to confer any rights or remedies upon any person other than Fitch and Licensee, save that each member from time to time of the Fitch Group of Companies shall expressly have the full right, title and capacity without further notice to the Licensee to enforce the terms of this Agreement as if it were itself Fitch.
- 5.6 If any provision of this Agreement shall be considered illegal, invalid or unenforceable, either in whole or in its application to a particular circumstance, in any jurisdiction, then (a) such provision will be deemed amended to conform to applicable laws of such jurisdiction so as to be valid and enforceable or, if it cannot be so amended without materially altering the intention of Fitch and Licensee, it will be stricken; (b) the validity, legality and enforceability of such provision will not in any way be affected or impaired thereby in any other jurisdiction; and (c) the remainder of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect.
