Winterlights Presented by Bank of America is Set for Ninth Year at Newfields

Tickets for the seasonal spectacle go on sale for Members 10/16 and public 10/21

INDIANAPOLIS, October 14, 2025 — Only at Winterlights presented by Bank of America can guests literally surround themselves with the spirit of the season in a larger-than-life glittering ornament. A night at Winterlights brings a warmth and coziness to families and friends exploring the winter tradition on a chilly night in The Garden.

The Landscape of Light, Twinkling Trail and nearly two million lights are returning, but that's not all. The undeniable display of wintertime wonder extends inside the historic Lilly House with whimsical Dickens Villages from The McCaw Collection, sweetly scented gingerbread and a sprinkle of holiday delight at Styled for the Season presented by LINNEA.

"Bank of America is committed to supporting community initiatives that meaningfully connect us and enable us to share uplifting experiences," said Andy Crask, President, Bank of America Indianapolis. "Newfields is one of Indy's local treasures, offering cultural experiences that enrich our community. We're proud to support Winterlights, a cherished holiday event where families and friends can celebrate the holiday season together."

From November 21, 2025, through January 4, 2026, the annual holiday experience will be open, punctuated by special events and partner nights throughout the run. Tickets go on sale October 16 for Members and October 21 for the public, both at 11 a.m.

"Our team here at Newfields works behind the scenes throughout the year to bring the magic of Winterlights to life, and we are starting to feel the excitement as the season approaches," said Jonathan Wright, Ruth Lilly Director of The Garden and Fairbanks Park. "We are celebrating almost a decade of Winterlights this year, and our guests have come to know and love the tradition and make magical memories in The Garden during the holiday season. This year, visitors will experience old favorites like the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra's performance on Landscape of Light, alongside some sparkling new additions."

Hearts and hands will be warmed by crackling firepits at our Culinary Campsite at Garden Terrace. Satisfy your holiday sweet cravings with s'more kits and giant chocolate chip cookies. Get in the holiday spirit — cocoa and cider can be spiked with a shot from Uncle Nearest Premium Whiskey or peppermint vodka. Enjoy a Winterlights-inspired Electric Reindeer brew from Sun King Brewing Co. or a spiced plum cider from Ash & Elm Cider Co.

Before you leave, pick up a thoughtful gift from Wintermarket sponsored by Marian, Inc. or The Museum & Garden Shop. There is something for everyone on your holiday gift list and each purchase supports Newfields in what is the institution's largest fundraising event of the year.

This winter season brings several can't-miss programs. Visit each event's respective page to learn more and secure tickets for the night's festivities.

About Newfields:

Newfields offers dynamic experiences with art and nature for guests of all ages. The 152-acre cultural campus features art galleries, lush gardens, a historic home, performance spaces, a nature preserve and sculpture park. From inspiring exhibitions in the IMA Galleries, to concerts in The Tobias Theater, to a stroll through The Garden with a glass of something cold, guests are invited to interact with art and nature in exciting new ways. Newfields is home to the Indianapolis Museum of Art, among the ten largest and ten oldest general art museums in the nation; the Lilly House, a National Historic Landmark; The Garden, featuring 40 acres of contemporary and historic gardens, a working greenhouse and an orchard; and The Virginia B. Fairbanks Art & Nature Park, one of the largest art and nature parks in the country. The Newfields campus extends outside of Indianapolis with Miller House and Garden in Columbus, Ind. — one of the nation's most highly regarded examples of mid-century Modernist architecture.
