INDIANAPOLIS, IN, July 22, 2026—Giants: Art from the Dean Collection of Swizz Beatz and Alicia Keys presented by JPMorganChase will be on view at the Indianapolis Museum of Art at Newfields from September 19, 2026, through February 28, 2027. Organized by the Brooklyn Museum, the exhibition brings together monumental contemporary art and historic masterworks from the personal collection of musical and cultural icons Swizz Beatz (Kasseem Dean) and Alicia Keys. Through powerful conversations across generations, the exhibition explores Black identity, creativity, power and care while celebrating artists, communities and cultural legacies that have shaped art and culture.

"Bringing Giants to Indianapolis reflects Newfields' commitment to presenting the most compelling artists and cultural voices of our time," said Le Monte G. Booker, Sr., President & CEO for Newfields. "We are advancing a bold, new chapter for the Indianapolis Museum of Art at Newfields that deepens our engagement with contemporary art. We are focused on presenting work that sparks dialogue, broadens perspectives and reflects the richness of our communities. Giants embodies that vision. More than a celebration of artistic excellence, this exhibition offers audiences an opportunity to experience the transformative power of art on a truly extraordinary scale."

Giants represents a defining moment in Newfields' ongoing commitment to contemporary art and to expanding the stories and perspectives represented across the museum. In 2025, the Indianapolis Museum of Art at Newfields opened BOLD:

New Voices in Contemporary Art, signaling a renewed investment in collecting and presenting significant contemporary works. Giants builds upon that momentum, reinforcing Newfields' vision to be a leading destination for contemporary art and one of the nation's premier museums for experiencing the art of our time.
