WILLIAM GRAY

BY MEYER DAVIS STUDIO

WG

Teddy Lounge Chair

William Gray is grounded in an appreciation for classic design and timeless craftsmanship. Each family of products highlights intelligent subtraction through the use of intentional and elegant details. William Gray pieces are generous, curious, engaging and stylish. These designs are informed by a global outlook and wisdom gained from years of observation, study and collection.

Designers

William Meyer and Gray Davis

Informed by over twenty years of experience as an award-winning design boutique to luxury brands and esteemed private clients worldwide - and led by principal designers Will Meyer and Gray Davis - William Gray was conceived as an atelier within the Meyer Davis studio to be a wellspring of creativity and a response to a need for luxury products with an awareness of use.

Equally informed and comfortable designing for both hospitality and residential clients, the studio's design team found that in today's world of luxury, each is positively informed by the other. Luxury hotels require strict standards in form, function and comfort, and private clients desire longevity and upmost comfort. These shared values prompted Will and Gray to focus their vast archive of custom designs and distill them to create an edited, informed, and sensual collection of furniture they would use the world over.
