How can I get the most out of my App?

For the very best app experience, we are encouraging all supporters to complete their profiles, as well as enabling push notifications and location services.

How do I provide feedback?

The role of our supporters doesn't end with downloading the app; that's just where it begins. We are encouraging all fans to use the app and share their feedback on its functionalities. These insights are invaluable and will directly influence the enhancements for the official release. Feedback or requests for help can be submitted via the app or directly to app@lfc.co.uk.
