Privacy Policy

Introduction

Leicester City Football Club Limited (“we”, “us”, and “our”) is committed to protecting your personal data and respecting your privacy.

For the purposes of the relevant data protection legislation, the data controller is Leicester City Football Club Limited of King Power Stadium, Filbert Way, Leicester, Leicestershire, LE2 7FL, unless stated otherwise. A data controller is the entity which decides why and how your information is processed, i.e. how it is collected and used.

We are registered with the Information Commissioner Office (ICO) under registration number: ZA061945.

This Policy sets out the basis on which we collect personal data from you and the way in which it will be processed by us. Please read this Policy carefully to understand our views and practices regarding your personal data and how we shall treat it.

This Policy, together with our Terms and Conditions and any additional terms of use, applies to your use of our websites and the LCFC mobile application (“mobile application”).

It is important that you read this Policy together with any other privacy notice or fair processing notice that we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your personal data. This Policy supplements any other such notices and is not intended to override them.

We keep this Policy under regular review to make sure it is up to date and accurate.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during our relationship with you.

If you are under the age of 16, please specifically read the section at the end of this Policy headed “If you are under the age of 16”.

Why Do We Collect Information

When you provide personal data to us, we will treat that information in accordance with this Policy. We collect and process personal data in order to carry out our obligations arising from any contracts entered into and to provide you with the information, products and services that you request from us.

Examples of why we may use the information we collect for the following purposes:

Privacy Policy

- To provide products or services to you, including where you purchase of tickets, fill out forms, or communicate with us.
- To process payments for tickets or other services.
- To analyse attendance and improve future matches and / or events.
- To document the match and / or event for promotional, archival, and informational purposes.
- To administer any competitions or other promotions you enter into.
- To use footage and images in marketing materials, social media, and other promotional activities.
- To ensure the safety and security of all attendees at matches and / or events.
- To provide you with information and services that you request from us.
- To notify you about our matches and / or events or offers.
- To provide and improve our services.
- To personalise your experience on the website or within the mobile application.
- To respond to inquiries and provide customer support.
- To send periodic emails about updates, promotions, or other information related to our services.
- To monitor and analyse website usage to improve functionality.
- To detect and prevent criminal offences and/or fraud.

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. The lawful basis that we most commonly use to collect and process your personal information are:

- Where you have consented to the processing;
- Where we need to perform a contract we are about to, or have entered into with you;
- Where we need to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation;
- Where it is necessary for your vital interests; and/or
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.

“Legitimate interest” means the interest of our business in conducting and managing our business to enable us to give you the best service or product and the secure experience. Where we rely upon our legitimate interests we ensure that we consider and balance any potential impact on you and your rights before we process your personal data for our legitimate interests. We do not use your personal data for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law).

Whenever you have given us your consent to use your personal data, you have the right to change your mind at any time and withdraw that consent. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent

Types Of Personal Data We Collect

“Personal data” or “personal information”, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We may collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you, which we have grouped together as follows:

- “Identity Data”, which comprises information such as your first name, last name, marital status, title, date of birth and gender.
- “Audio and Visual Data”, which comprises of video images and/or audio recordings of you which may be taken by our CCTV systems (and/or other video recording systems) when you visit any of our premises, or when you contact us via telephone.
- “Contact Data”, which comprises information such as your address, delivery address, email address and telephone number(s).
- “Content Data”, which may include information stored on your Device, including login information, mobile ticketing, digital wallet data, photos, videos or other digital content, and check-ins.
- “Device Data”, which may include the type of mobile device you use, a unique device identifier (for example, your Device's IMEI number, the MAC address of the Device's wireless network interface, or the mobile phone number used by the Device), mobile network information, your mobile operating system, the type of mobile browser you use, and time zone setting.
- “Financial Data”, which comprises your bank account and payment card details.
- “Transaction Data”, which comprises details about payments to and from you and details of products or services you have purchased from us.
- “Technical Data”, which comprises information such as your IP address, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the device(s) you use to access our website and/or mobile application.
- “Profile Data”, which comprises information such as purchases or orders made by you, your interests, preferences, feedback and survey responses. We may also ask for details of any disability or health needs you may have at the time of booking an event or service which will take place at the stadium or any of our other premises to help to ensure your comfort and safety.
- “Usage Data”, which comprises information such as about how you use our website, mobile application, products and/or services.
- “Marketing and Communications Data”, which comprises your preferences in receiving marketing from us and third parties, and your communication preferences.

- “Location Data”, which includes the location of your device (using GPS, Bluetooth, satellite and/or other network-based positioning technology).
- other publicly available personal data, including any data which you have shared via a public platform (such as a Twitter feed or public Facebook page).

This list is not exhaustive, and in specific instances, we may need to collect additional data for the purposes set out in this Policy.

Some of the above personal data is collected directly from you, for example when you make a purchase, send an email to us or contact us via social media.

Special Category Personal Data

We are committed to ensuring equal access and opportunity for all individuals. We may collect and process more sensitive personal data, also referred to as special category personal data, which includes health or medical information, mental health or other relevant information required to support accessibility needs.

Where we collect and use special category personal data it will likely be with your consent. We will only collect and use this information to assess requests for reasonable adjustments, implement appropriate support measures and where appropriate monitor and improve accessibility and inclusion.

Anonymised and Aggregated Data

In some circumstances, we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you). This can be for research or statistical purposes; in which case we may use the anonymised information indefinitely without further notice to you.

We also collect, use and share “Aggregated Data” such as statistical or demographic data. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal information but does not constitute “personal data” in law as it does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity.

For example, we may aggregate (i.e. combine with information relating to others) your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific feature of our website or mobile application or for sponsor acquisition purposes.

However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your information so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be handled in accordance with this Policy.

Minimum Required Information

Where we need to collect personal data by law, or under the terms of a contract we have with you, and you fail to provide the minimum required data when requested, we may not be able to perform the contract we have or are trying to enter into with you (for example, to provide you with the product or service you have purchased). In that event, we may have to cancel our agreement with you to provide a product or service you have ordered, and will notify you if this is the case at the time.

When Do We Collect Information?

We may collect information on you in the following ways:

Information that you voluntarily provide to us

When you place an order with us, register for an account, consult with our customer service team, send us an email, fill in forms on our website or mobile application, enter a competition or promotion, or communicate with us in any way, you are voluntarily giving us information that we collect. We also collect information you give to us when we contact you during the ordering process or in the process of managing your account.

We also collect information when you register to use our mobile application. When you download or register with our mobile application, share data via our mobile application's social media functions, or enter a competition, promotion or complete a survey we require some of your personal data, including your Identity Data, Contact Data, Financial Data, Transaction Data, Profile Data and Marketing and Communications Data.

Information that we collect automatically

When you browse our website, use our mobile application or otherwise interact with our digital platforms, we may collect information about your visit to our website, your web browsing, and your activity within our mobile application. That information may include your Device Data, Technical Data and Usage Data. We may collect this information as a part of log files as well as through the use of cookies or other similar technologies.

Our use of cookies and similar technologies is explained more fully in our Cookie Policy at www.LCFC.com/club/cookies.

CCTV and telephone recordings

We may collect and use personal data obtained from CCTV surveillance and when you contact us by telephone.

CCTV operates throughout our premises, including inside and outside our stadium and grounds. We also utilise other video recording systems such as body worn video cameras in order to protect the physical assets of our business such as our buildings, including our stadium and training ground facilities.

We have placed clear signage to inform you of our use of CCTV. Footage is retained for a limited period of time, unless required for investigation or legal purposes.

We use CCTV to:

- Ensure the safety and security of all visitors, staff and players,
- For detecting and preventing crime, including anti-social or discriminatory behaviour
- Managing incidents and supporting investigations; and
- Complying with our legal and regulatory obligations.

We may record and monitor incoming and outgoing telephone calls. Recordings are used to protect the interests of those participating in the call and to provide us with relevant information when managing incidents and supporting investigations.

Recordings may also be used for staff training exercises to improve the quality of our services. Telephone recordings will be stored securely and only retained for limited period unless required for legal purposes.

Payment information:

We may process your personal data to process any payments made for the provision of services and/or products. The information may include information for identification and verification, such as your name, credit, debit or other card number, card expiration date, and CVV code.

Any payment transactions carried out by us, or our chosen third party provider of payment processing services will be kept secure and encrypted where possible.

Information from other sources

This is personal data we receive about you from third parties.

In addition to the personal data, you provide us directly, we may supplement the information that you provide with other information that we obtain from our dealings with you or which we receive from other organisations, for example, our sponsors, affiliates and partners.

From time to time, we may obtain information about you from third party sources, such as public databases (for example, Companies House and the Electoral Register), ticketing platforms, sponsors, partners and / or other third-party data providers.

We will take steps to ensure that such third parties are legally permitted or required to disclose such information to us. Examples of the information we may receive from other sources include: demographic information, device information (such as IP addresses), location, and online behavioural data (such as information about your use of social media websites, page view information and search results and links) from analytics providers and search engine providers (for example, Google based outside the EU).

We use this information, alone or in combination with other information (including personal data) we collect, to enhance our ability to provide relevant marketing and content to you and to develop and provide you with more relevant products features, and services.

How We Use Your Information

We have set out below a description of all the ways we intend to use any personal data. We may use and process your personal data for the following purposes:

Processing your order

In processing any order which you place with us, we will use your Identity Data, Contact Data, Financial Data, Transaction Data, Profile Data and Marketing and Communications Data in order to provide you with our products and services, which includes managing, processing and dispatching your orders as well as processing payments.

We will also use this information to keep adequate records of your past purchases, as well as to contact you regarding your order. All Financial Data processed via our website and mobile application will be encrypted.

To manage our relationship with you

We use your personal data to provide you with relevant updates on fixtures, ticketing, merchandise and other news.

We may also send you important updates about our products, services, or changes to our services and mobile application.

Marketing

We strive to provide you with choices regarding certain personal data uses, particularly around marketing and advertising.

If we have obtained your express opt-in consent, we may send you, or permit selected third parties to send you, other forms of marketing.

We have an online form and boxes that you need to tick if you wish to receive any marketing materials and you can manage your marketing preferences online via your account or mobile application.

Privacy Policy

You have the right to withdraw your consent to receiving direct marketing at any time by contacting us.

You can also edit your preferences for marketing and advertising within your account section. For our mobile application, certain preferences (such as push notifications and location services) can also be adjusted within your device settings.

We may also send you information electronically about products, events, promotions or services which are similar to those you have already purchased from us and which we believe may be of interest to you. If we are relying on our legitimate interests to send you marketing, you can object at any time by contacting us.

Where you have purchased products or services from us, we may also ask you to complete a review or survey about your recent purchase. This is necessary in order to keep you updated about products and services you have purchased, develop our range of products and services, and grow our business.

Cookies and Advertising

We may use the information that we collect in order to deliver relevant website and mobile application content and advertisements to you and to measure or understand the effectiveness of the advertising we serve.

We also use data analytics to improve our website, mobile application, products and services, marketing, customer relationships and experiences. This is in order for us to be able to study how customers use our products or services and develop them, to grow our business and to inform our marketing strategy.

For more information on how we use cookies or other similar technologies for these purposes, as well as how to opt-out of the use of cookies, please visit our Cookie Policy here. www.LCFC.com/club/cookies.

To administer and protect our business, our website, and our mobile application

We may also use your information in order to protect our business, our website, our mobile application, and to help us monitor or improve the products or services that we offer. This includes using your information to deliver the most relevant content for you (for example, if you provide us with confirmation of a particular interest,) troubleshooting, statistical and data analysis, testing, system maintenance, support, reporting and hosting of data.

We also use your information to improve our website and mobile application so that content is presented in the most effective manner for you and for your computer and/or mobile device / tablet, and as part of our efforts to keep our site safe and secure. This is necessary for the running of our business, provision of administration and IT services, network security and prevention of fraud. We may also need to use your information in the context of a business reorganisation or group restructuring exercise.

Community and Charitable Projects

We sometimes collect personal data when we act as agents for Leicester City Community Trust Limited and LCFC Foxes Foundation. When we collect personal data on their behalf we do so for local community projects and/or charitable events and/or donations.

In the event we do share personal data with another third party controller we will ensure that the any data shared is limited secure and used solely for the purposes it was collected for.

While we take steps to ensure that your personal data remains secure, we are not responsible for how your personal data is handled by third parties once it is shared. We encourage you to review the privacy policies of any third parties as indicated.

Premier League Commitment on Abusive and Discriminatory Conduct

As part of the objective shared between us and the Premier League in tackling abusive and discriminatory behaviour, we may use your personal data for the purposes of operating and enforcing the Premier League's Commitment on Abusive and Discriminatory Conduct ("PL Commitment").

In relation to the PL Commitment, we may process your personal data for the purposes of:

- i. investigating any allegations or confirmed prohibited activity;
- ii. enforcing any sanctions; and
- iii. circulating information processed under (i) and (ii) with relevant third parties (for example, the Premier League, The Football Association and the police).

The lawful basis for processing this data is our legitimate interest in preventing abusive and discriminatory behaviour and where criminal offence or special category personal data is involved, because it is necessary for the prevention or detection of unlawful acts in the public interest or for legal claims.

Other purposes

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another lawful reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent where this is required or permitted by law.

When Will We Share Your Personal Data?

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law.

We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

We shall not share your personal data with any third parties for marketing purposes without your express consent. Examples of who we share your personal data with include:

Service providers

We will share your personal data with service providers where this is necessary in order to provide you with products or services that you have ordered. Examples of Service Providers include payment processors, ticketing providers, hosting services, suppliers, sub-contractors and delivery services. We may also need to share your personal data with third party software or IT support providers for the purpose of system administration, data security, data storage, back up, disaster recovery and IT support.

Community partners

We may also share your information with the Leicester City Football Club Trust Limited, LCFC Foxes Foundation and other partners (such as the Premier League and Leicestershire Police), in relation to specific Leicester City Community Trust Limited projects, programmes, charitable events or other schemes we are organising with them. The Leicester City Community Trust in particular provides a range of opportunities which creates a positive impact on the lives of children, young people and adults.

We will always be clear as to who we are sharing your information with and for what purpose and ensure that all of our community partners treat your information in accordance with this Policy and all applicable data protection legislation, and have appropriate safeguards in place when handling children or other vulnerable people's data.

Advertising partners

We may partner with third party advertising networks and exchanges in order to display advertising on our websites, our mobile application, or to manage and serve our advertising on other sites and may share personal data with them for this purpose. All third parties with which we share this information are required to use your personal data in a manner that is consistent with this Policy. We and our third-party partners may use cookies and other tracking technologies, such as pixels and web beacons, to gather information about your activities on our website, mobile application, and other sites in order to provide you with targeted advertising based on your browsing activities and interests. For more information about cookies and other tracking technologies, please visit our Cookie Policy. Lfc.com/cookies.

To transfer your information in the case of a sale, merger, consolidation, liquidation, reorganisation, or acquisition

We may share your personal data with third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this Policy.

To protect the rights, property, or safety of our business and other customers

We may disclose or share your personal data in order to comply with any legal or regulatory requirements, enforce our terms and conditions (or any other agreement we enter into with you), or to protect the rights, property, or safety of our business and other customers. This includes exchanging information with other companies and organisations for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction.

We may also share your personal data with our professional advisers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers based who provide consultancy, banking, legal, insurance and accounting services.

Third Party Websites

Our website and mobile application may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements.

When you leave our website or mobile application, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website that you visit.

International Transfers

We may transfer your personal data to service providers that carry out certain functions on our behalf. This may involve transferring personal data outside the UK to countries which have laws that do not provide the same level of data protection as the UK law.

Whenever we transfer your personal data out of the UK to service providers, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring that the following safeguards are in place:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the UK (for example, countries in the European Economic Area).

- We may use specific standard contractual terms approved for use in the UK which give the transferred personal data the same protection as it has in the UK, namely the International Data Transfer Agreement or The International Data Transfer Addendum to the European Commission's standard contractual clauses for international data transfers. For further details, click here.

Where Will We Store Your Personal Data?

We use our best endeavours to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Policy and comply with the relevant data protection legislation within the United Kingdom.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

Please note that the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we shall do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we shall use effective safeguarding procedures and security features to try to prevent any unauthorised access to your personal data.

How Long Will We Keep Your Personal Data?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances we may anonymise your personal data (so that it can no longer be associated with you) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

In the event that you do not use our mobile application for a period of 24 months then we will treat the account as expired and your personal data may be deleted. In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see the "Right to be Forgotten" section below for further information.

Your Rights

Under certain circumstances, you have the following rights:

- to request that we provide you with a copy of the personal data that we hold about you ("Access Request");

Privacy Policy

- to request that we rectify any personal data that we hold about you (“Right to Rectification”);
- to request that we erase any personal data that we hold about you (“Right to be Forgotten”);
- to restrict the level of processing we carry out with your personal data (“Restriction of Processing”);
- to obtain from us all personal data that we hold about you in a structured, machine-readable form, and have this information transmitted to another organisation (“Data Portability”);
- to object to our processing your personal data in certain ways (“Right to Object”);
- to not be subject to solely automated decisions in relation to any processes that have a legal or similarly significant effect on you; and
- to withdraw your consent at any time to our processing of your personal data.

Please see the relevant sections below for further details on your rights as a data subject. You can exercise any of the above rights by emailing us at help@lfc.co.uk.

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data or to exercise any of your other rights. This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

We shall comply with any request made under this section as soon as possible, and normally within one month from the date of your request. However, if necessary, for example if your request is particularly complex or we receive a number of similar requests, we may extend this period by an additional two months, but we shall notify you if we need to do this.

You will not usually have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). However, please note that where we receive requests under this section which are manifestly unfounded or excessive, for example because they are repetitive in nature, we may charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or taking the action requested; or refuse to act on the request.

Access Requests: You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you at any time. This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data that we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it. Please note that in most circumstances, we shall not make a charge for this subject to the above. However, we may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs for any further copies requested.

Right To Rectification: You have the right at any time to ask us to rectify any personal data that we hold for you which is incorrect or incomplete. This enables you to have corrected any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data that you provide to us.

If we have disclosed any incorrect or incomplete data to any third parties, we shall inform them of any necessary amendments or corrections made to your personal data under this section.

Right To Be Forgotten: You have the right to ask us to erase the personal data that we hold about you in circumstances where:

- It is no longer necessary for us to handle your personal data for the purpose for which it was originally collected;
- You have withdrawn your permission for us to hold your personal data (where this was the basis on which it was collected or used);
- You object to the processing of the data and there is no lawful overriding reason for us to continue processing your personal data;
- The personal data was unlawfully processed; or
- We have to erase your personal data in order to comply with a legal obligation.

Please note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Restriction of Processing: You can ask us to restrict how we use your data in the following circumstances:

- Where you believe that the information we hold about you is inaccurate, you can ask that we refrain from using your data until we can verify the accuracy of it;
- Where we have unlawfully processed your data, you can ask that we restrict our usage of it rather than erase it completely;
- Where we no longer need to hold your information, but you wish us to retain your information for the purpose of establishing, exercising or defending a legal claim; or
- Where you have objected to our use of your information but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Data Portability: You have the right to obtain from us all personal data which you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable form, provided that such data was processed based on your consent, or for the purpose of a contract between us and the processing was carried out by automated means. Please note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

This will allow you to move, copy or transfer personal data easily from one IT environment to another. Alternatively, we can transmit such data directly to another organisation. Please note that we shall not be able to comply with a data portability request if this will affect the rights and freedoms of others.

Right To Object

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, to our processing of your personal data where we are doing this for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest (which we shall have told you about, if applicable), or where we are carrying out processing for the purposes of legitimate interests pursued by us.

You also have the right at any time to ask us not to process your personal data for direct marketing or profiling purposes (to the extent that such profiling is related to such direct marketing). We shall have informed you before the time we obtained your personal data whether we intend to process your personal data for this purpose, or if we intend to disclose your information to any third party for such purposes.

If we process your personal data for automatic decision making or profiling purposes (i.e. to analyse or predict your personal preferences and purchase behaviour, and such profiling is automated) we shall tell you about this beforehand, and will only do this where this is a necessary condition of entering into a contract between you and us, or where you have given us your explicit consent to do this.

The Right Not To Be Subject To Automated Decisions And Profiling

You have the right to not be subject to solely automated decisions (i.e., decisions that are made about you by computer without any human input) in relation to any processes that have a legal or similarly significant effect on you.

We do not make a solely automated decisions that have a legal or similarly significant upon you. You will be notified if we make a solely automated decision which produces a legal effect or significantly affects you.

Right To Withdraw Consent

Where you have given us your consent to our processing of any of your personal data, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time, for example if you no longer wish us to share your information with third parties for marketing purposes (where you have previously consented to this). However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.

If You Are Under 16

If you are under 16, please read this section of the Policy and speak to your parent or guardian if you have any questions before using our website and/or mobile application and providing us with any of your personal information. If you continue to use our website and/or mobile application, we will assume that you have your parent or guardian's consent to do so.

You can use our website without providing us with any of your personal information. If you do provide us with your personal information we will use it as set out on the website (or mobile application, where applicable). For example, if you sign up to get the newsletter, we will use your email address to send you the newsletter and news, updates and promotions we think you might like.

We encourage you to talk with your parent/guardian about the information we send to you, and check that they are happy for you to continue to receive this information. If you do not tell us you do not want to receive this information anymore, we will assume you have your parent or guardian's consent to continue to receive this information.

You can send us a message to help@lfc.co.uk if you have any questions, want us to stop sending you messages or want to change any of the information you have given to us.

If you are a parent or guardian of a child who is using our website, mobile application, or is otherwise in contact with us, we recommend that you supervise your child while they are online and check what personal information your child is providing to us.

How Can We Help

If you have any questions about this Policy, our use of your personal data or we can otherwise assist you please contact us.
