

Wonder Park

Project Rubric

	Exceeds Expectations	Meets Expectations	Approaching Expectations	Score
Planning & Creativity	Ride elements are original and fit within the chosen theme. You are hired to be the creative director of all new amusement parks.	Ride elements are standard and/or elements stray from chosen theme. Your designs must be approved by the creative director before they are used in new rides.	Ride elements are not incorporated into the design. You are removed from the creative team.
Artistic Merit	Effective use of materials/tools create an accurate picture of the ride. You are promoted to lead artist of the amusement park and your work is seen by millions each year.	Some instances of ineffective use of materials/tools create a somewhat inaccurate picture of the ride. You are asked to become the lead artist's assistant.	Repeated ineffective use of materials/tools create an inaccurate picture of the ride. Your work does not get featured in the park design.
Presentation of Work	Presentation demonstrates understanding of ride elements and its intended audience. You become the spokesperson for the park.	Presentation includes some misunderstandings of ride elements and/or its intended audience. Your help write speeches and documents that will be used by the spokesperson.	Presentation does not demonstrate an understanding of ride elements or its intended audience. You are asked to proofread speeches and documents.

Wonder Park

Writing Extensions Rubric (V1)

Teacher Comments

Content
Originality
Stance
Conventions	