

WHAT SOUNDS CAN A PICTURE HOLD?

Look closely

Artwork: Children's band | Artist: Tadeusz Makowski (1882-1932) | Year: 1922 | Source: National Museum in Warsaw

1

What is going on in this painting? Write down as many things as you notice. There are no right or wrong answers.

Identify the message

2

This painting is full of things that make sound. Some are easy to spot, others only a careful listener would find. List each one you find and write the sound it could make.

Sound Source	Sound it could make

3

Are the children playing together or each on their own?
What do you see that makes you say that?

Connect to yourself

4

If you joined this band, what sound would you add?

Your teacher will play a piece of music.
Or you can pick a song you like.

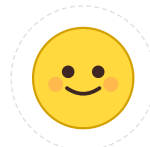

While you listen, draw what you imagine.

How much did you like this activity? Circle the face.

I loved it!

It was fine

