Renovations To Make Your Home
Worth More and Sell Faster

Entry-Level Homes

Best Renovations for Entry-Level Homes ($500K - $700K)

What are entry-level buyers looking for?

Entry-level buyers seek affordability and value. They appreciate move-in-ready homes with fresh, low-maintenance updates, like refreshed kitchens, new flooring, and curb appeal improvements.

Renovation	Cost	Value Added	ROI %
Kitchen Facelift paint cabinets, new backsplash, mid-range appliances	$15,000 - $25,000	$11,000 - $19,000	70-85%
Bathroom Refresh new vanity, fixtures, reglazed tub	$8,000 - $15,000	$6,000 - $12,000	70-80%
Flooring Upgrade replace carpet with hardwood or LVP	$10,000 - $20,000	$7,500 - $15,000	70-80%
Curb Appeal & Exterior Refresh paint, front door, landscaping	$5,000 - $15,000	$5,000 - $12,000	70-100%
Energy-Efficient Windows upgrade to energy-efficient windows	$12,000 - $18,000	$8,000 - $13,000	60-70%

Our Recommendations

- Keep renovation costs moderate but focus on high-impact updates (kitchens, bathrooms, flooring).
- A fresh coat of paint, a new door, and landscaping make a big difference. Curb appeal is huge!
- Buyers appreciate energy-efficient features like new windows or smart thermostats.
- Avoid over-renovating—mid-range buyers won't pay extra for luxury features.

Mid-High End Homes

Best Renovations for Mid-High End Homes ($700K - $1M)

What are mid and high-end buyers looking for?

Prioritize functionality and comfort, with a focus on modernized kitchens, bathrooms, and functional living spaces like finished basements. While they enjoy nice finishes, they're not looking for extreme luxury.

Renovation	Cost	Value Added	ROI %
Mid-Range Kitchen Remodel new countertops, appliances, cabinet refacing	$30,000 - $50,000	$22,000 - $37,000	70-80%
Bathroom Remodel new vanity, flooring, fixtures	$15,000 - $25,000	$10,000 - $20,000	70-80%
Finished Basement media room, gym, guest suite	$40,000 - $60,000	$28,000 - $45,000	65-75%
Deck/Patio Addition wood or composite	$20,000 - $30,000	$14,000 - $21,000	65-75%
Curb Appeal landscaping, driveway, new garage door	$10,000 - $20,000	$8,000 - $16,000	70-90%

Our Recommendations

- These buyers are looking for move-in-ready homes but don't necessarily want ultra-luxury finishes.
- Updating kitchens and bathrooms is key to justifying the price.
- Basement spaces for entertainment or guest suites are in demand.
- Outdoor spaces (patios, decks) and curb appeal improvements are highly valuable

Executive Homes

Best Renovations for Executive Homes ($1M+)

What are luxury buyers looking for?

Luxury buyers are seeking high-end, move-in-ready homes that offer top-tier finishes and the latest technology. They value expansive kitchens, spa-like bathrooms, and state-of-the-art smart home features.

Renovation	Cost	Value Added	ROI %
High-End Kitchen Remodel custom cabinetry, quartz, top-tier appliances	$75,000 - $100,000	$45,000 - $60,000	50-60%
Spa-Like Primary Bathroom heated floors, steam shower, freestanding tub	$40,000 - $60,000	$24,000 - $36,000	50-60%
Smart Home & Security automation, cameras, lighting, thermostat	$10,000 - $25,000	$7,000 - $15,000	60-70%
Luxury Landscaping outdoor kitchen, fire pit, designer gardens	$20,000 - $50,000	$15,000 - $40,000	70-80%
Garage & Storage Upgrades epoxy floor, built-ins, EV charging	$10,000 - $20,000	$7,000 - $15,000	60-75%

Our Recommendations

- Luxury buyers want a move-in-ready, high-tech home. Focus on kitchens, bathrooms, and curb appeal.
- Smart home upgrades (security, automation) are highly desirable.
- Outdoor living spaces (fire pits, entertainment areas) boost curb appeal and lifestyle value.
