AT&T will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Services. This means that if AT&T cannot resolve your problem after several attempts, AT&T reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to end further efforts to resolve the problem. In addition, AT&T has limited proprietary information from vendors, manufacturers, and developers relating to the devices and/or applications and may not have the ability to obtain the proprietary information that may be necessary to resolve a specific technical problem. Technical problems that may arise may be the result of software or hardware errors not yet resolved by the hardware or software manufacturer, in which case AT&T may not be able to resolve the problem. Customers are encouraged to follow a practice of regularly backing up information. AT&T shall have no obligation to determine if all adequate back up steps were taken by you. However, if AT&T elects to determine if adequate back up steps were taken, AT&T may, but is not required to, decline to proceed with problem resolution in its sole discretion.

A broadband Internet connection is recommended, but not required for us to provide Service. We may also recommend a certain course of action for you to follow that is necessary to receive the Service. If you do not have a functional PC, cables or software when required, or are unable to follow AT&T recommendations, AT&T will have no obligation to provide the Service.

You are prohibited from, and expressly agree not to, copy or modify Software or other materials provided with the Service. The Software may be provided by a third party and you will be required to accept the End User License Agreement ("EULA") provided by that third party prior to downloading the Software. You agree to comply with the EULA and any other terms and conditions that may be provided by the third party with Software and, in the event of a conflict, such Software-specific terms and conditions will take precedence over this Agreement as to such specific Software. In addition, if you work with a third party on any password or other access-control-oriented problems in connection with the use of the Remote Access Software or otherwise, we strongly recommend that you take steps to protect your password such as resetting such password(s) immediately following the completion of the Service.

V. CHARGES.

We may provide you with notice of such changes (other than changes to governmental fees, proportional charges for governmental mandates, or administrative charges, if any) by e-mail or such other means as AT&T determines to be most practicable. If we change the subscription fee or institute new fees or charges, or materially change the scope of the Service, we will notify you of such changes in advance. You are liable for all fees and charges in accordance with billing terms in effect at the time the fees or charges become payable.

VII. TERMINATION

You may cancel the provision of the ProTech support or terminate this Agreement at any time by notifying AT&T. THE REMEDIES SET FORTH HEREIN ARE EXCLUSIVE AND YOU AGREE THAT UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCE WILL AT&T BE LIABLE TO YOU FOR ANY MORE THAN ONE MONTH'S SUBSCRIPTION FEE.

SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OF CERTAIN WARRANTIES OR THE LIMITATION OR EXCLUSION OF LIABILITY FOR INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES. ACCORDINGLY, SOME OF THE ABOVE LIMITATIONS MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU. THE PROVISIONS OF THIS PARAGRAPH WILL SURVIVE ANY TERMINATION OF THIS AGREEMENT.

XIII. INDEMNIFICATION.

You agree to indemnify, hold harmless and release AT&T, its parent, affiliate and subsidiary companies and their directors, officers, employees and agents, which includes their third-party service providers, from and against any and all liabilities, claims, damages, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, arising in any way from or relating to, directly or indirectly, your purchase or use of the ProTech support. This obligation shall survive termination of this Agreement (including termination of the ProTech support).

XIV. GOVERNING LAW.

The law of the state of your billing address shall govern this Agreement except to the extent that such law is preempted by or inconsistent with applicable federal law. In the event of a dispute between us, the law of the state of your billing address at the time the dispute is commenced, whether in litigation or arbitration, shall govern except to the extent that such law is preempted by or inconsistent with applicable federal law.

XV. DISPUTE RESOLUTION BY BINDING ARBITRATION:

PLEASE READ THIS CAREFULLY. IT AFFECTS YOUR RIGHTS.

Summary:

Most customer concerns can be resolved quickly and to the customer's satisfaction by calling the AT&T ProTech support customer service department at 888-562-8662. In the unlikely event that AT&T's customer service department is unable to resolve a complaint you may have to your satisfaction (or if AT&T has not been able to resolve a dispute it has with you after attempting to do so informally), we each agree to resolve those disputes through binding arbitration or small claims court instead of in courts of general jurisdiction. Arbitration is more informal than a lawsuit in court. Arbitration uses a neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, allows for more limited discovery than in court, and is subject to very limited review by courts. Arbitrators can award the same damages and relief that a court can award. Any arbitration under this Agreement will take place on an individual basis; class arbitrations and class actions are not permitted. For any non-frivolous claim that does not exceed $75,000, AT&T will pay all costs of the arbitration. Moreover, in arbitration you are entitled to recover attorneys' fees from AT&T to at least the same extent as you would be in court.

In addition, under certain circumstances (as explained below), AT&T will pay you more than the amount of the arbitrator's award and will pay your attorney (if any) twice his or her reasonable attorneys' fees if the arbitrator awards you an amount that is greater than what AT&T has offered you to settle the dispute.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

1. AT&T and you agree to arbitrate all disputes and claims between us. This agreement to arbitrate is intended to be broadly interpreted. It includes, but is not limited to:
 - claims arising out of or relating to any aspect of the relationship between us, whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation or any other legal theory;
 - claims that arose before this or any prior Agreement (including, but not limited to, claims relating to advertising);
 - claims that are currently the subject of purported class action litigation in which you are not a member of a certified class; and
 - claims that may arise after the termination of this Agreement.

References to "AT&T," "you," and "us" include our respective subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, employees, predecessors in interest, successors, and assigns, as well as all authorized or unauthorized users or beneficiaries of services or Devices under this or prior Agreements between us. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may bring an individual action in small claims court. This arbitration agreement does not preclude you from bringing issues to the attention of federal, state, or local agencies, including, for example, the Federal Communications Commission. Such agencies can, if the law allows, seek relief against us on your behalf. You agree that, by entering into this Agreement, you and AT&T are each waiving the right to a trial by jury or to participate in a class action. This Agreement evidences a transaction in interstate commerce, and thus the Federal Arbitration Act governs the interpretation and enforcement of this provision. This arbitration provision shall survive termination of this Agreement.

2. A party who intends to seek arbitration must first send to the other, by certified mail, a written Notice of Dispute ("Notice"). The Notice to AT&T should be addressed to: Office for Dispute Resolution, AT&T, 1025 Lenox Park Blvd., Atlanta, GA 30319 ("Notice Address"). The Notice must (a) describe the nature and basis of the claim or dispute; and (b) set forth the specific relief sought ("Demand"). If AT&T and you do not reach an agreement to resolve the claim within 30 days after the Notice is received, you or AT&T may commence an arbitration proceeding. During the arbitration, the amount of any settlement offer made by AT&T or you shall not be disclosed to the arbitrator until after the arbitrator determines the amount, if any, to which you or AT&T is entitled. You may download or copy a form Notice and a form to initiate arbitration at www.att.com/arbitration-forms.
3. After AT&T receives notice at the Notice Address that you have commenced arbitration, it will promptly reimburse you for your payment of the filing fee, unless your claim is for greater than $75,000. (The filing fee currently is $200 for claims under $10,000 but is subject to change by the arbitration provider. If you are unable to pay this fee, AT&T will pay it directly upon receiving a written request at the Notice Address.) The arbitration will be governed by the Commercial Arbitration Rules and the Supplementary Procedures for Consumer Related Disputes (collectively, "AAA Rules") of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA"), as modified by this Agreement, and will be administered by the AAA. The AAA Rules are available online at adr.org, by calling the AAA at 1-800-778-7879, or by writing to the Notice Address. (You may obtain information that is designed for non-lawyers about the arbitration process at www.att.com/arbitration-information.) The arbitrator is bound by the terms of this Agreement. All issues are for the arbitrator to decide, except that issues relating to the scope and enforceability of the arbitration provision are for the court to decide. Unless AT&T and you agree otherwise, any arbitration hearings will take place in the county (or parish) of your billing address. If your claim is for $10,000 or less, we agree that you may choose whether the arbitration will be conducted solely on the basis of documents submitted to the arbitrator, through a telephonic hearing, or by an in-person hearing as established by the AAA Rules. If your claim exceeds $10,000, the right to a hearing will be determined by the AAA Rules. Regardless of the manner in which the arbitration is conducted, the arbitrator shall issue a reasoned written decision sufficient to explain the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. Except as otherwise provided for herein, AT&T will pay all AAA filing, administration, and arbitrator fees for any arbitration initiated in accordance with the notice requirements above. If, however, the arbitrator finds that either the substance of your claim or the relief sought in the Demand is frivolous or brought for an improper purpose (as measured by the standards set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11(b)), then the payment of all such fees will be governed by the AAA Rules. In such case, you agree to reimburse AT&T for all monies previously disbursed by it that are otherwise your obligation to pay under the AAA Rules. In addition, if you initiate an arbitration in which you seek more than $75,000 in damages, the payment of these fees will be governed by the AAA rules.
4. If, after finding in your favor in any respect on the merits of your claim, the arbitrator issues you an award that is greater than the value of AT&T's last written settlement offer made before an arbitrator was selected, then AT&T will:
 - pay you the amount of the award or $10,000 ("the alternative payment"), whichever is greater; and
 - pay your attorney, if any, twice the amount of attorneys' fees, and reimburse any expenses (including expert witness fees and costs) that your attorney reasonably accrues for investigating, preparing, and pursuing your claim in arbitration ("the attorney premium").

If AT&T did not make a written offer to settle the dispute before an arbitrator was selected, you and your attorney will be entitled to receive the alternative payment and the attorney premium, respectively, if the arbitrator awards you any relief on the merits. The arbitrator may make rulings and resolve disputes as to the payment and reimbursement of fees, expenses, and the alternative payment and the attorney premium at any time during the proceeding and upon request from either party made within 14 days of the arbitrator's ruling on the merits.

5. The right to attorneys' fees and expenses discussed in paragraph (4) supplements any right to attorneys' fees and expenses you may have under applicable law. Thus, if you would be entitled to a larger amount under the applicable law, this provision does not preclude the arbitrator from awarding you that amount. However, you may not recover duplicative awards of attorneys' fees or costs. Although under some laws AT&T may have a right to an award of attorneys' fees and expenses if it prevails in arbitration, AT&T agrees that it will not seek such an award.
6. The arbitrator may award declaratory or injunctive relief only in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide relief warranted by that party's individual claim. YOU AND AT&T AGREE THAT EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN YOUR OR ITS INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS OR REPRESENTATIVE PROCEEDING. Further, unless both you and AT&T agree otherwise, the arbitrator may not consolidate more than one person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. If this specific provision is found to be unenforceable, then the entirety of this arbitration provision shall be null and void.

XVI. IMPORT/EXPORT CONTROL.

You acknowledge that Services and any Software (including, but not limited to, technical assistance) provided under this Agreement may be subject to import or export laws, conventions or regulations, and any use or transfer of the Software or technical information must be in compliance with all such laws, conventions and regulations. You will not use, distribute, transfer or transmit any Software or technical information except in compliance with such laws, conventions and regulations. None of the Software or underlying information or technology may be downloaded or otherwise exported or re-exported (a) into (or to a national or resident of) any country to which the United States has embargoed goods; or (b) to anyone on the U.S. Treasury Department's list of Specially Designated Nationals or the U.S. Commerce Department's Table of Deny Orders. By downloading or using any Software, you are agreeing to the foregoing and representing and warranting that you are not located in, under the control of, or a national or resident of any such country or on any such list. If requested, you agree to sign written assurances and other documents as may be required to comply with such laws, conventions and regulations.

XVII. GENERAL INFORMATION.

This Agreement, and any other policies or guidelines referenced herein, constitute the entire agreement between AT&T and you in connection with the ProTech support. This Agreement governs your use of the ProTech support, superseding any prior agreements between you and AT&T with respect to the subject matter of this Agreement. If any provision of this Agreement is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, you and AT&T nevertheless agree that the court should endeavor to give effect to the parties' intentions as reflected in the impacted provision, and the other provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. You agree that regardless of any statute or law to the contrary, any claim or cause of action arising out of or related to use of the ProTech support or this Agreement must be filed within one (1) year after such claim or cause of action arose or be forever barred. The failure of AT&T to exercise or enforce any right or provision of this Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such right or provision.
