

3rd Party Software Agreement README for TALON CONFIGURATOR

Embedded in, or bundled with, this product are open source software (OSS) components and other third party components identified below. You may receive a copy of, distribute and/or modify any open source code for the OSS component under the terms of their respective licenses, which may be GNU General Public License, the GNU Lesser General Public License, the modified BSD license and the MIT license. In the event of conflicts between Siemens license conditions and the Open Source Software license conditions, the Open Source Software conditions shall prevail with respect to the Open Source Software portions of the software.

You are permitted to modify proprietary components originating from Siemens and to engage in reverse engineering for purposes of debugging such modifications, to the extent such components are linked to libraries licensed under the GNU Lesser General Public License. You are not permitted to distribute information resulting from such reverse engineering or to distribute the modified proprietary components. Your rights to modify proprietary components originating from parties other than Siemens are governed by the respective third party's license conditions.

On written request within three years from the date of product purchase and against payment of our expenses, Siemens will supply source code for any OSS component identified below in linewith the terms of the applicable license.

For this, please contact us at:

Siemens Schweiz AG
Building Technologies Group
Intellectual Property
Gubelstraße 22
CH 6300 Zug
Switzerland

Generally, the identified OSS components are distributed in the hope that they will be useful, but WITHOUT ANY WARRANTY, without even implied warranty such as for MERCHANTABILITY or FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, and without liability for any Siemens entity other than as explicitly documented in your purchase contract.

I. Open Source Software (OSS) Components

All open source software components used within the product are listed below (including their copyright holders and the license conditions).

For OSS components having different portions released under different licenses, refer to the included Upstream Resources Internet website location(s) specified for each of the respective OSS components for identifications of code files released under the identified licenses.

Permissions

As you know, this site is a valuable resource for the developer community. Please note, however, that to avoid legal complications, we need to obtain your permission to use any computer code and any related materials ("resources") that you are providing to us. Accordingly, by submitting any such resource to CodeGuru, you grant to QuinStreet a nonexclusive, worldwide, perpetual license to reproduce, distribute, adapt, perform, display, and sublicense the submitted resource (in both object and source code formats, as well as on and off the Web), and you acknowledge that you have the authority to grant such rights to QuinStreet.

By submitting the resource, you also grant your article's readers the permission to use any source code in the resource for commercial or noncommercial software. PLEASE NOTE THAT YOU RETAIN OWNERSHIP OF ANY COPYRIGHTS IN ANY RESOURCES SUBMITTED!

ALSO, IN MAKING THE RESOURCE AVAILABLE TO OTHER SITE VISITORS FOR DOWNLOADING, QUINSTREET WILL INFORM SUCH OTHER VISITORS THAT, ALTHOUGH THEY MAY DOWNLOAD ANY RESOURCES FOR COMMERCIAL OR NONCOMMERCIAL USES, THEY MAY NOT REPUBLISH THE SOURCE CODE SO THAT IT IS ACCESSIBLE TO THE PUBLIC WITHOUT FIRST OBTAINING THE COPYRIGHT OWNER'S PERMISSION.

Are there any usage restrictions or is the code on your site considered open source?

Within the submission guidelines on CodeGuru there is a lot of information about posting as well as a Permissions paragraph. This paragraph tells you what people agreed to when they uploaded code, resources, or an article. To answer this question, submitted code has been provided with the understanding that others may use it in both, personal and corporate, applications. If you use the code, you should honor any copyright notices and other similar information that may be stated within the given code. As the fine print on nearly every site says and as it states on the general site usage notes, use of any code is at your own risk.

Licenses:

MICROSOFT LIMITED PUBLIC LICENSE

This license governs use of code marked as "sample" or "example" available on this web site without a license agreement, as provided under the section above titled "NOTICE SPECIFIC TO SOFTWARE AVAILABLE ON THIS WEB SITE." If you use such code (the "software"), you accept this license. If you do not accept the license, do not use the software.

1. Definitions

The terms "reproduce," "reproduction," "derivative works," and "distribution" have the same meaning here as under U.S. copyright law.

A "contribution" is the original software or any additions or changes to the software.

A "contributor" is any person that distributes its contribution under this license.

"Licensed patents" are a contributor's patent claims that read directly on its contribution.

2. Grant of Rights

(A) Copyright Grant - Subject to the terms of this license, including the license conditions and limitations in section 3, each contributor grants you a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free copyright license to reproduce its contribution, prepare derivative works of its contribution, and distribute its contribution or any derivative works that you create.

(B) Patent Grant - Subject to the terms of this license, including the license conditions and limitations in section 3, each contributor grants you a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license under its licensed patents to make, have made, use, sell, offer for sale, import, and/or otherwise dispose of its contribution in the software or derivative works of the contribution in the software.

3. Conditions and Limitations

(A) No Trademark License- This license does not grant you rights to use any contributors' name, logo, or trademarks.

(B) If you bring a patent claim against any contributor over patents that you claim are infringed by the software, your patent license from such contributor to the software ends automatically.

- (C) If you distribute any portion of the software, you must retain all copyright, patent, trademark, and attribution notices that are present in the software.
- (D) If you distribute any portion of the software in source code form, you may do so only under this license by including a complete copy of this license with your distribution. If you distribute any portion of the software in compiled or object code form, you may only do so under a license that complies with this license.
- (E) The software is licensed "as-is." You bear the risk of using it. The contributors give no express warranties, guarantees or conditions. You may have additional consumer rights under your local laws which this license cannot change. To the extent permitted under your local laws, the contributors exclude the implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose and non-infringement.
- (F) Platform Limitation - The licenses granted in sections 2(A) and 2(B) extend only to the software or derivative works that you create that run on a Microsoft Windows operating system product.

II. Third Party Components Licensed by Siemens
