Additional Notices:

Depending on the context of your interactions with us, and the products, services and features that you use, the following chart includes the categories of personal information that the Company has collected and the categories of third parties with which we may have disclosed for business purposes within the preceding 12 months. Such collected information may be used for the purposes described within the Company's Privacy Notice which directed you to this page. Please note that, unless a specific Siemens website, product, service, or affiliate privacy notice states otherwise, Siemens does not engage in the sale of personal data to third parties for monetary consideration. Like many companies, Siemens and its affiliates may use cookies, pixels, and similar technologies for analytics, personalization, and advertising. Certain U.S. privacy laws may characterize disclosures of online identifiers, browsing activity, or similar information to advertising or analytics partners as a "sale," "sharing," or "targeted advertising." Where applicable, you may opt out of these activities and reject non-essential cookies by selecting "Manage Preferences" in the Cookie Notice and selecting "Reject all." Strictly necessary cookies will remain active because they are required for the operation, security, and functionality of the website.

Exercise of Applicable Rights; Appeal

In order to exercise any rights that may be available to you under the law of the state in which you reside (for example, any rights to deletion or disclosure of personal data or to appeal a decision that we have made with respect to your request), please contact our Data Privacy Organization at dataprotection@siemens.com.

Please note that any requests may be subject to verification of the identification of the requestor. The method we would use to verify your identity will be different depending on the manner and context in which your data was collected and may require the provision by you of such personal information as may be necessary to match you to our records of you (if any). Depending on the laws of your state, you may be entitled to use an authorized agent to exercise your rights on your behalf and, if you choose to do so, such an agent may contact us in the same manner as described above, and will also be required to verify their own identity and their authority to act on your behalf.

If you have questions, concerns or comments, please contact us at dataprotection@siemens.com.

Opt-Out Preference Signals

Where legally required under applicable state law, we recognize and process opt-out preference signals transmitted through your browser or device. These signals may include, but are not limited to, the Global Privacy Control (GPC) or similar universal opt-out mechanisms that communicate your preference to opt-out of the “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information and/or targeted advertising.

Please note that opt-out preference signals are browser- or device-specific. If you access our services from multiple browsers or devices, you will need to enable the opt-out preference signal on each browser or device. Additionally, if you clear your browser cookies or use a different browser or device, you may need to renew your opt-out preference signal.

Usage by Children

This Offering is not directed to children under the age of thirteen. We will not knowingly collect personal data from children under the age of thirteen without insisting that they seek prior parental consent if required by applicable law. We will only use or disclose personal data about a child to the extent permitted by law, to seek parental consent, pursuant to local law and regulations or to protect a child.

Additional Notices for California Residents

For California Residents Only

This section applies and provides further information to California residents and notifies them of their rights under California law. This section is not applicable to and may not be relied upon by anyone else besides California residents.

The California Consumer Privacy Act as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act and accompanying regulations (collectively "CPRA") provides residents certain rights regarding the Personal Information that businesses collect and how the collected Personal Information is used.

Sensitive Personal Information We Collect and Share, and for What Purpose:

Please note that precise geolocation information qualifies as sensitive Personal Information under the CPRA. We may use this sensitive Personal Information for purposes of performing services for our business, providing website and mobile application, and ensuring the security and integrity of our business, infrastructure, and the individuals we interact with. However, we do not use or disclose sensitive Personal Information for purposes other than those that are necessary and proportionate to accomplish the objectives set forth in Cal. Code Regs. §7027(m).

Rights:

California residents have the right to request that we delete the personal data that we have collected about that resident. Please note that there are circumstances under which such a right of deletion does not apply, such as where it is reasonable for us to maintain the personal information to:

1. Complete the transaction for which the personal information was collected, provide a good or service requested or reasonably anticipated, or otherwise perform a contract with the resident.
2. Detect security incidents; protect against malicious, deceptive, fraudulent or illegal activity; or prosecute those responsible for that activity.
3. Debug to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality.
4. Exercise free speech, ensure the right of another resident to exercise his or her right of free speech, or exercise another right provided for by law, or comply with a legal obligation.

SIEMENS

5. Comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act.
6. Engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific, historical or statistical research in the public interest (when deletion of the information is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of such research) if the resident has provided informed consent.
7. Enable solely internal uses that are reasonably aligned with the resident's expectations based on the relationship with us.
8. Otherwise use the personal information, internally, in a lawful manner that is compatible with the context in which the resident provided the information.

California residents have the right to:

1. Request that we disclose, with respect to that resident:
 - The categories of personal information we have collected.
 - The categories of sources from which we collected the personal information.
 - The purpose for collecting or selling personal information.
 - The categories of third parties with whom we share personal information for the purpose of cross-context behavioral advertising.
 - The specific pieces of personal information we have collected.
2. Request correction of inaccurate personal information.
3. Request that we delete your Personal Information
4. Opt-out of the “sale” or “sharing” of your Personal Information. We do not sell Personal Information for monetary consideration in a commercial sense; however, to the extent our use of cookies, pixels, or similar technologies may be deemed a “sale,” or “sharing,” or targeted advertising under applicable law, you may exercise your opt-out rights by selecting “Manage Preferences” in the Cookie Notice and selecting “Reject all”, or by enabling a recognized opt-out preference signal such as Global Privacy Control.
5. Not experience discrimination if you exercise one or more of your CPRA rights.

To exercise the rights that may be available to you as described above, please contact us either by this online form or toll free at 1-877-392-0306.

Please note that any requests may be subject to verification of the identification of the requestor. The method we would use to verify your identity will be different depending on the manner and context in which your data was collected, and may require the provision by you of such personal information as may be necessary to match you to our records of you (if any). You may be entitled to use an authorized agent to exercise your rights on your behalf and, if you choose to do so, such an agent may contact us in the same manner as described above, and will also be required to verify their own identity and their authority to act on your behalf.

You have the right not to be discriminated against by us for exercising any of these rights.

California's "Shine The Light" law:

California's "Shine The Light" law permits those of our customers who are California residents to annually request a list of their personal data (if any) that we have disclosed to third parties for direct marketing purposes in the preceding calendar year, and the names and addresses of those third parties. At this time, we currently do not disclose personal data to third parties for their direct marketing purposes as defined by applicable data privacy law.

This section provides additional details regarding the Personal Data that we collect or process about Colorado, Virginia, Utah, Oregon, Montana, Tennessee, Delaware, Iowa, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Texas, Florida, Connecticut, Indiana, Kentucky and Rhode Island residents, and describes your rights pursuant to the privacy laws in those states.

Additional Disclosures In These States

Your Rights

Under the laws of those states listed above, consumers who are residents of these states may have specific rights regarding their Personal Data. When required and permitted, we will respond to most requests within 45 days unless it is reasonably necessary to extend the response time. Subject to certain limitations, you may have the following rights depending on your state of residence. Please note that these rights do not extend to an individual acting in an employment context. Additionally, we do not process your Personal Data for purposes of profiling in furtherance of decisions that produce legally or similarly significant effects concerning a consumer, and therefore, such opt-out rights are not available.
