Group passes

Unlock exclusive benefits and incentives when your organization purchases multiple passes for the annual Digital Transformation Conference.

Realize LIVE is the premier digital transformation conference for thinkers and doers in design, manufacturing and lifecycle management to accelerate your digital transformation.

It brings together Siemens users, partners, and product experts to exchange insights, explore trends, preview new products, and share best practices. Attendees will discover the technologies and techniques needed to accelerate digital transformation.

FAQs

Why are group passes beneficial?

In addition to exclusive benefits and reduced prices, as a team you will get to share insights and collaborate with Siemens leaders to explore how your technology can drive digital transformation within your organization.

Do I need to know the names of attendees at the time of purchase?

No, you don't need to provide attendee information when you make your purchase. Your order will generate group codes that can be distributed later.

Can I make multiple purchases on different days and still qualify for group pricing?

No, all passes must be requested in a single transaction to be eligible for group pricing.

Can I combine ticket quantities across Americas and Europe?

No, the total ticket quantity is specific to each event.

What are my payment options?

Group Ticket Offer packages can be purchased below.
