

DRESS REGULATIONS

Paddo provides a comfortable environment where patrons are able to enjoy their surroundings and use of club facilities without disruption from others that are inappropriately dressed or behave in an unacceptable manner.

To ensure patron compliance with these principles, standards have been set for dress and behaviour.

ACCEPTABLE ATTIRE:

- Neat, clean and tidy casual wear (no large tears or holes)
- Clean Tracksuits (top and/or bottom)
- Overalls and work boots (must be clean) up to 9.00pm.
- Football shorts/stubbies of modest length and appearance up to 9.00pm
- Dress sandals, boat shoes and scuffs – up to 9.00pm
- Casual and sports shoes to be worn with socks
- Dress shirts without collars (includes ‘T’ shirts)
- Clean and tidy Football jerseys at anytime
- Singlets and sleeveless shirts permitted in nominated areas of the Club and whilst entering and leaving the Foyer.

UNACCEPTABLE ATTIRE (not permitted at anytime):

- Barefeet
- Untidy and/or dirty clothing or footwear
- Offensive motifs or imagery on clothing
- Gang patches or other insignia on clothing
- Swimwear or revealing clothing
- Helmets, beanies and bandanas other than for medical or religious reasons (facial features must be visible).
- Offensive personal hygiene

GENERAL REGULATIONS:

- Interpretation of the Dress Regulations is at the discretion of Duty Management.
- Hats and Caps are acceptable attire except during recital of “The Ode”
- Patrons under 18 years old are permitted in certain areas (restaurants) of the Club however they must be in the company of a “responsible adult” at all times.
- Proof of Age and Residential Qualification are required for Temporary Members and Members' Guests.
- Club Members are required to produce their Membership Card upon entry and/or when requested to do so by Duty Management.
- Management reserves the right to refuse entry to any person not conforming with licensing or club regulations.
- Patrons who are intoxicated, abusive, violent or quarrelsome will be requested to leave and may be subject to disciplinary action.
- Patrons requested to leave the Club by Duty Management must leave the premises immediately and not return within a 24 hour period or if deemed necessary may be suspended and subject to disciplinary action.