Change in Anora Group's Executive Management Team: Anora's Chief Financial Officer to change

Anora Group's CFO Sigmund Toth has resigned from his position. He will continue in his current position until 1 August 2024, at the latest. The search for his successor has commenced. Sigmund remains highly committed to contribute to the company's success during his notice period, including ensuring a smooth handover to his successor.

Sigmund Toth has acted as Anora's CFO and member of the Executive Management Team since the merger between Altia and Arcus in September 2021, and as the CFO and interim CEO of Arcus prior to that.

"Sigmund has been heavily involved in defining Anora's growth strategy up to 2030. I want to thank him for his valuable contribution in developing the financial steering of the company and wish him all the best for the future," says Jacek Pastuszka, CEO of Anora.

"On behalf of the Board of Directors, we want to thank Sigmund for his valuable contribution in developing the company through the merger between Altia and Arcus, as well as the acquisitions made since. We wish him all the best in his future endeavours," says Michael Holm Johansen, Chairperson of Anora's Board of Directors.
