The CIFD Programme is designed for existing fund directors, and those with extensive asset management or funds experience who aspire to become investment fund directors.

It is also a valuable programme for anyone operating in executive positions within the funds industry.

Launched in Dublin in 2013, the CIFD Programme has been delivered in Dublin, London, Zurich, New York and fully online during 2020.

As a participant on the CIFD Programme you will have our full support on your learning journey. The programme provides the opportunity to learn from experts drawn from academia and industry. Over the course of the programme you will see your skills enhanced through an interactive learning forum where challenges can be explored, and wisdom and insights dissected and shared.

We are delighted that you are interested in the CIFD Programme and look forward to welcoming you to the programme.

Siobhán Walsh
Director of Executive Education

The CIFD programme is delivered in a blended format, complementing one face-to-face block of lectures over five consecutive days, with intensive reading, webinars, and self-directed learning.

The programme addresses the distinctive characteristics of investment fund governance versus that of other financial organisations. The role of investment fund boards and the conditions for effective investment fund governance is explored in the context of the unique set of relationships within the investment fund governance framework and the role that each of the key parties must play in practice.

While the programme is predominately grounded in the changing European regulatory and institutional framework for investment funds, it can be applied across jurisdictions creating a common approach to investor protection within and across asset management organisations.

We are very grateful for the support of the Alternative Investment Management Association and the Chartered Financial Analyst Institute in our mission to enhance investment fund governance standards globally.

We have partnered with the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) Association for the delivery of the fundamentals of alternative investment component of the CIFD Programme. Participants who enrol in the CIFD Programme will automatically be enrolled in CAIA's Fundamentals of Alternative Investments Certificate (FAI) Program. The FAI is an introductory-level, online course designed to provide a foundation of core concepts in alternative investing. With no exam requirement, the 40-hour, self-paced course fills a critical education gap for professionals who need to get current on the alternative investment landscape.

Please feel free to get in contact with us if you have any questions.

Giles Swan
Programme Director

The CAIA Association is thrilled to partner with IOB on their CIFD Programme.

The array of investment options now available to global asset owners will continue to grow and it is imperative that education keeps pace. Despite the very distinguished careers of so many fund directors, a number of today's strategies did not even exist just a few short years ago. Risk management, governance and regulatory expectations have been redefined around a more complex world and a competent fund director must continue to evolve in order to properly serve the shareholders for whom they work.

The CIFD Programme is unique, globally relevant and puts the interests and expectations of the shareholder out front, where it needs to be. CAIA is proud that some of our Members have been among the early participants of this programme, underscoring the fact that our learning must never stop. This point is now even more significant for us with the recent adoption of our Fundamentals of Alternative Investments (FAI) as part of the portfolio management component of the CIFD Programme.

Thank you for your interest and your commitment to staying current.

William J. Kelly
CEO
CAIA Association

AIMA, the global hedge fund industry association, is delighted to be a supporter of the CIFD Programme.

Throughout our history we have been committed to developing industry skills (being a co-founder of the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) designation) and sound practices.

The success of the CIFD Programme since its launch in 2013, including its expansion into New York in 2017, underlines the importance of fund governance today and the growing demand for education standards in this key area among current and prospective fund directors and due diligence professionals.

As the hedge fund industry continues to mature and evolve, sound governance practices, as promoted by the CIFD Programme, will further boost investor confidence in hedge funds and help to drive additional growth in the industry.

Jack Inglis
CEO AIMA

We were delighted to license the Standards of Practice Handbook, containing the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct, to IOB for use in its CIFD Programme.

The investment management industry is grappling with the consequences and changes resulting from the coronavirus pandemic. This raises many questions about what it takes to be relevant in a volatile market. While there is no blueprint for navigating these uncertain times, it matters to have professionally constructed portfolios that meet investor objectives. We expect that clients will continue to seek educated, ethically-oriented professionals who pursue excellence of practice and who put clients first.

We believe that financial markets are most effective when participants practice the highest ethical standards and, looking ahead to the future, the skills and profile of investment managers will still be anchored around the fundamental tenets above. Our organisations are united in their dedication to delivering high quality professional education and leading in ethics and best practice. Through this joint commitment, we can continue to build investor trust and confidence in markets, ultimately benefiting society as a whole.

About the CIFD Programme

Programme overview

The CIFD Programme is delivered through an intensive combination of class-based, online, and self-directed learning. This is a blended learning programme, where class-based learning is supported by additional reading, online webinars and individual learning outside the classroom. This approach allows for time-constrained professionals to manage their own learning journey whilst still benefiting from the interactive and peer learning that a classroom environment provides.

The Programme comprises ten modules. Seven modules are delivered in the classroom and three are delivered online (see Programme Curriculum on page 06). The classroom-based modules are delivered over one block of five consecutive days' and are supplemented by assigned pre-reading material and, for some modules, short supporting webinars. The CAIA module – Fundamentals of Alternative Investments – is a self directed online course. The Custody and Board Oversight and Risk Management and Board Oversight modules are delivered through a combination of live and recorded webinars.

Participants on the CIFD Programme have access to a student portal on IOB Learn. Through this portal, participants have access to the webinars and a library of reading material recommended by the programme faculty.

The Director hosts a live webinar to welcome participants at the start of the programme. This provides recommended timelines for participants to navigate through the milestones. As participants, you will play an important role in the success of the programme.

Prior to the classroom week, engaging with the assigned reading and webinars is critical. We estimate that approximately 70 hours of online and self-directed learning is required for this purpose. Inside the classroom, over the five-day block, active participation and discussion is facilitated and encouraged by lecturers. Contextualising the programme material in the day-to-day experiences of participants within the classroom is an integral part of the CIFD Programme.

The learning journal allows participants to reflect on how their knowledge has developed during each module, what they are learning and the relevance or application of this learning to their own experiences in a work setting.

The content of the learning journal will be unique to each participant and will reflect their experiences during the programme and their own interpretation of the material presented. The learning journal is evaluated and graded, alongside the reflective essay, to assess the participant's knowledge, synthesis, analysis and development throughout the programme.

Testimonials

“ The CIFD programme offered me the opportunity to expand my knowledge in a complex evolving industry while increasing the effectiveness of my role as a fund director. Through an exceptionally interactive, intense combination of class-based, on-line and case study based learning, I gained a comprehensive understanding of unique governance challenges associated with investment funds and how to apply a risk-based approach to investment fund oversight at the board level.

The most valuable experience I gained during the programme was knowledge from industry experts, dynamic academics and thought provoking exchanges with fellow participants from diverse backgrounds and experiences. As regulators and investors continue to laser focus in on investment fund governance, completing the CIFD programme will enhance and promote sound governance practices by providing education and support to investment fund professionals that will enable them to perform their role to the highest standards of governance.”

Ebony Myles-Berry CIFD
Cohort 9, New York.

“ Having worked in the funds business for many years, on deciding to pursue non-executive fund roles, I turned to the CIFD. I was attracted by the CIFD's academically rigorous yet practical and interactive approach to building the expertise required to deliver effective fund governance and safeguard the best interests of the investor. Through online training and classroom interaction I was able to refresh my technical expertise across the full risk spectrum, while also exploring the ethical and philosophical dimensions of good governance in funds. With real life case studies and industry experts delivering interactive learning experiences and the opportunity to network with my cohort, it provided an invaluable learning experience. Once that prepares you for the challenges specific to fund governance but also to good governance overall”

Linda Carmody CIFD
Cohort 13, London.

“ At a time when regulators and investors are focusing more on the quality and composition of a fund board, the CIFD Programme was excellent in that it encapsulated all the pertinent issues of a fund and the integral role the CIFD can play. This can only enhance the marketing profile of the fund and its promoter and at the same time safe-guard the interests of investors and ultimately its beneficial owners.”

Philip Craig CIFD
Cohort 1, Dublin.
