Who we are

IOB

IOB is a professional community of 33,400 members who work in banking, investment funds and international financial services on the island of Ireland.

Professional development of our members through education is at the heart of what we do.

IOB provides university level programmes to enable our members achieve and sustain their professional qualifications and continuing professional development (CPD) – essential in meeting customer and regulatory expectations.

More than 9,800 individuals studied with us last year and over 23,800 members are registered for CPD schemes administered by IOB.

Excellence in education – a recognised college of UCD

In our chosen markets and sectors, to be the leading, progressive, authoritative expert in financial services education by combining academic rigour and practical application.

The Association of Compliance Officers in Ireland (ACOI)

The Association of Compliance Officers in Ireland (ACOI) is the professional body for compliance professionals. With over 3,000 members, it is the premier provider of education and professional development in compliance, providing an authoritative voice on matters relating to regulatory compliance and business ethics in industry in Ireland.

The purpose of the ACOI is to equip Compliance Professionals and those who deal with compliance and regulation with the necessary competence and skills to undertake their roles in a professional manner. We provide our members with accredited graduate and post graduate education in the various fields of compliance and business ethics, through our academic education partners. The ACOI Licentiate (LCOI) designation satisfies the Central Bank of Ireland's Minimum Competency Code and all LCOIs are recognised by IFCA members as Internationally Certified Compliance Professionals (ICCP). In addition, both the LCOI and FCOI (Fellowship) designations are considered the benchmark designations to demonstrate competence to work in Compliance in financial services.

ACOI has an extensive Continued Professional Development (CPD) offering – indeed members holding our designations must complete annual CPD to maintain that designation. ACOI offers members a wide range of benefits that enhance their professional knowledge and provides opportunities to share their experiences with fellow members. Further information on the benefits of membership can be found at www.acoi.ie

Award

Upon successful completion of the programme, participants will be awarded the Professional Certificate in Conduct Risk, Culture and Operational Risk Management by UCD. This is a level 8 qualification on the National Framework of Qualifications and carries 15 ECTS.

Operational risk is now exceeding market risk in importance and magnitude for many financial firms. For many other firms, operational risk is the major form of enterprise risk... New threats from technology, cyber risk, and disruptive business models will continue to make operational risk a critical and increasing focus for firms and a great area for study and career opportunities. This certificate gives practitioners an advantage in the growing area of operational risk."
