Milan, 28 June 2022

REVO announces the appointment of Fabio De Ferrari as Chief Operating Officer, with effect from July 1, 2022.

The manager, who is already one of the promoters of the Spac launched in May 2021, will now take on a leading operational role within the Group's corporate management.

Fabio De Ferrari, 57, boasts a long experience in insurance and technology gained in important multinational groups worldwide, holding top management positions. Indeed, Fabio De Ferrari joins REVO from the Allianz Group where, from 2018 to 2021, he acted as COO of Allianz Germany and prior to that, from 2013 to 2018, as COO of Allianz Global Assistance first and of Allianz Partners afterwards, both with global responsibilities.

As part of his role, Fabio will head all Information Technology, Data Science and Business Analytics, as well as Operations of the REVO Group and its subsidiaries.

Alberto Minali, CEO of REVO, said: " I'm truly delighted to welcome Fabio in our management team, a meaningful choice by someone who believed right away in REVO's innovative project and became its promoter, and who will now also contribute as a manager. His vast experience and in-depth knowledge of insurance, information technology and operations, which he gained while working for some of the world's most important companies, will help to increase the operational efficiency and the satisfaction of our intermediaries and customers. The high value of REVO's management team is thus enriched by another professional who will bring further momentum to the journey of growth we have undertaken."
