Weekly Highlights

The market may have bottomed out. Across the Bright MLS footprint, there were 4,404 new pending contracts during the week ending January 15. While new contracts were down 19.6% compared to last year at this time, there was a 38.2% increase from last week. Part of that weekly increase is due to the holiday during the first week of January.

New listings activity is still very low. There were just 1,531 new listings that came onto the market during the week ending January 15, which is 67.4% lower than last year at this time. Weekly new listings were up 21.3% compared to last week, with the biggest gains in New Jersey and West Virginia. New listings hit historically low levels in December. Typically, weekly new listings rise steadily through the spring.
