

Blessed art thou on the glorious throne of thy kingdom; * praised and exalted above all for ever.

Blessed art thou in the firmament of heaven; *

praised and exalted above
all for ever.

Blessed art thou, O Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; *
praised and exalted above
all for ever.

SECOND READING: Romans 5:1-5

SINCE WE ARE justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

GOSPEL: John 16:12-15

JESUS SAID to his disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

Traditional

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hast given unto us thy servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of the Divine Majesty to worship the Unity: We beseech thee that thou wouldest keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see thee in thy one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit livest and reignest, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Contemporary

ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, you have given to us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity, and in the power of your divine Majesty to worship the Unity: Keep us steadfast in this faith and worship, and bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory, O Father; who with the Son and the Holy Spirit live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

DOES NOT WISDOM CALL, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The LORD created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth—when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world’s first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race.”

Refrain

O Lord our Governor, how exalted is your Name in all the world.

Psalm 8 from the Book of Common Prayer

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world! | and the stars you have set in their courses, |
| 2 Out of the mouths
of infants and children * your majesty is praised above the heavens. | 5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? * the son of man
that you should seek
him out? |
| 3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, * to quell the enemy and the
avenger. | 6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; * you adorn him
with glory and honor; |
| 4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, * the moon | 7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; * you put all
things under his feet: |

- | | |
|--|--|
| 8 All sheep and oxen, * even the wild beasts of the field, | whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea. |
| 9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, * and | 10 O LORD our Governor, * how exalted is your
Name in all the world! |

Refrain

Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

or Canticle 13

- | | |
|---|--|
| Glory to you, Lord God of our fathers; * you are worthy of praise; glory to you. | Glory to you, seated between the Cherubim; * we will praise you and highly exalt
you for ever. |
| Glory to you for the radiance of your holy Name; * we will praise you and highly exalt you for ever. | Glory to you, beholding the depths; * in the high vault of heaven, glory to you. |
| Glory to you in the splendor of your temple; * on the throne of your majesty,
glory to you. | Glory to you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; * we will praise you and highly exalt
you for ever. |

or Canticle 2

- | | |
|--|--|
| Blessed art thou, O Lord God of our fathers; * praised and exalted above all for ever. | Blessed art thou in the temple of thy holiness; * praised
and exalted above all for ever. |
| Blessed art thou for the Name of thy Majesty; * praised
and exalted above all for ever. | Blessed art thou that
beholdest the depths, and dwellest between the Cherubim; * praised and
exalted above all for ever. |
