

Dear Trinitarians,

Advent, Chanuka and Christmas are upon us! What a great time to be a member of Trinity. We have a full schedule of Advent events slated, and I hope you will take advantage of them.

As we move into the fourth year of my time with you, I want you to think about how Trinity can expand its mission to the community. What does Roslyn need and how can we provide it? I read an article that posits “The Episcopal Church Welcomes You” as an outdated and overworked slogan. We do a great job of welcoming people when they come, but I believe this puts the cart before the horse. I want to see us begin to say “The Episcopal Church Invites You”- the invitation to experience the community of God that we know to be Trinity.

This Advent and Christmas season is a great time to be born as Jesus was born, with a heart of God and a will toward the community. If we can take the joy of Christmas morning into the new year, we show the world what the Trinity community and Christian community look like. We are the love of Christ and a part of the community of God here in the midst of a troubled world.

Peace and All Good,
George+

PARISH HAPPENINGS

HEAD OF THE CHARLES REGATTA OCTOBER 18

Dr. James Crawford was victor in the opening event of this 3-day regatta on the Charles River in Boston, MA: the Men's 70+ Singles. The HOCR is the world's largest rowing regatta and a celebration of the sport of rowing, bringing over 10,000 rowers from around the world, to compete in over 70 events of all ages, both sexes, and racing boats that include singles (1X), doubles (2X), quads (4X), fours (4+) and eights (4+). From 2012 to 2022, Jim was the 2-oar in the Dartmouth alumni men's Senior Masters 4+. In 2023, he gave up his "sweep" seat for a dress-rehearsal row as a 1X in the Men's 50-69 age group event, to get to know the course. This was in anticipation of his turning 70 years old in October 2024. He was thus a "young whippersnapper" in the 70+ event this year, beating seasoned competitors (including former Olympians and national champions) who have dominated HOCR singles events over their several decades of Masters rowing. As Jim's wife, Aleta, pointed out after the race, "Next year you will be the mark to take down." Very motivating for the coming year of training!

BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

Once again, Fr George took his life in his hands as he blessed the canines who attended church on Oct 6. Luckily, all were well behaved!

TRINITY'S FIRST DAY OF WELLNESS

On Saturday, September 28 the Invite Welcome Connect team held the first 'Trinity Day of Wellness'. We had a wonderful turnout of Trinity members, parishioners from Grace Whitestone, and others who came for a specific session.

Father George welcomed everyone and there were two concurrent sessions during two time blocks that attendees chose from. Ariann & Larry led a music and meditation session while Amanda Lachowicz from the local Y presented a session about sound healing using cymbals, Tibetan bowls and other instruments. Then attendees were able to choose from a yoga session with Mary Lou Minard or a session led by Irene Ross from the Diocesan Creation Care team on natural healing and how what we eat and how we interact with the environment affects our emotional and physical wellbeing.

We were happy to have Mother Joanne lead Labyrinth tours in the choir room! Attendees said they wished they could have attended everything! We might offer fewer sessions in future events or have one session at a time on Saturday mornings in 2025.

BURNING BOOKS

The next Burning Books meeting is December 3 via Zoom, discussing North Woods by Daniel Mason, "a sweeping novel about a single house in the woods of New England, told through the lives of those who inhabit it across the centuries."

Following that is James, by Percival Everett, the retelling of Huckleberry Finn from the point of view of his enslaved companion, Jim, which just won the National Book Award. Other upcoming selections include Remarkably Bright Bright Creatures by Shelby Van Pelt, The Heaven and Earth Grocery Store by James McBride, Tom Lake by Ann Patchett, and more.

Just email us at any time if interested in joining us: johnplatt@optonline.net.

Paula Johnson's show dog, Fiadh, was recently included in the September/October SHORTHAIR JOURNAL. Fiadh's show name is Claddagh's Wild and Wynsom. Claddagh is the name of the sire's kennel, and Wynsom is the name of the dam's kennel. The name seems to be very appropriate!

RUGELACH

You will not regret making these!

1 c butter (2 sticks), softened
1 c. sour cream
2 c. flour

Mix above ingredients together, place in wax paper & refrigerate overnight.

Mix together:

1 c. nuts
½ c. brown sugar
½ c. white sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
Raisins (optional)

Divide refrigerated dough into 4 equal parts. Leave 3 parts in fridge. Work on one part at a time.

Sprinkle approx. ½ cup of sugar mixture onto very lightly-floured board. Press down the one part dough onto sugar mixture and turn over & over, pressing (rolling, if desired) until dough is about the size of a luncheon plate (9-10"). Divide into 12 pie portions with a knife. Place 2-3 raisins on each, if desired. Roll like crescent rolls (going from wide edge to narrow edge) & bend into a half moon or crescent shape.

Place 12 rugelachs seam-down on an ungreased cookie sheet & bake at 350 for 20-25 min.

Repeat above with remaining parts of dough & bake as above.

Remove while still warm.

Makes 4 dozen. Enjoy!
