Episcopal Ministries of Long Island (EMLI) supports a growing network of parish-based ministries that meet urgent needs in our communities—offering food, baby supplies, affordable childcare, senior programs, and a loving reminder that every person is a child of God. In 2024, these ministries served over 58,000 neighbors across Brooklyn, Queens, Nassau, and Suffolk counties.

Every year, more parishes are expanding their outreach efforts, and the demand for funding continues to rise. Every dollar you give to EMLI goes directly to these front-line ministries, helping churches like ours respond to the Gospel call to serve. Your generosity sustains this vital network and helps bring the hope and love of Christ to our communities every day.
