

When you see or experience cyberbullying...take action!

People who bully others online often say they were just joking, but cyberbullying is no laughing matter. Online bullying is serious and has consequences, and not getting involved when you witness it can hurt just as much as the bullying itself.

The Take Action flowchart below is your guide to what to do if you see or experience cyberbullying. Complete the flow chart by filling in the blanks. You'll know what the words are by solving the Take Action crossword puzzle on the next page.
