

Global Business Foundation Program

Double Certificate | FDC (Brazil)
+ International Partner

An International Learning Experience in Business and Leadership

The GBFP is a dynamic, two-year program that prepares recent graduates to thrive in the global business landscape. Developed by FDC in collaboration with top international institutions, it combines academic excellence with real-world exposure, enhancing participants' leadership skills and global mindset.

Why Partner with Us?

- T-Shaped Professional Model: Combines broad strategic thinking with deep functional expertise.
- Global and Local Integration: Brazilian and international students learn side by side.
- Reciprocal Credit Recognition: Earned credits can be transferred and counted toward future degrees, such as an M.Sc. or Master in Management.
- FDC Specialization Path: Partner university students can transfer credits from their home institution and, by combining them with credits earned at GBFP, obtain an FDC specialization certificate recognized by the Brazilian Ministry of Education (MEC).
- Double Certificate: Students receive diplomas from both FDC and the Partner School.

Program based on a T-shaped professional framework

The T-shaped framework in the GBFP ensures that graduates develop both the breadth of understanding necessary to navigate complex global challenges and the foundational depth in core business functions; all with an international perspective, enabling them to contribute effectively as they launch their careers.

Horizontal Track

Develops soft skills, leadership capacity, systemic thinking, and the mindset for driving purposeful and impactful results.

Vertical Track

Builds foundational knowledge in business functions like marketing, finance, operations, and strategy, all with an international perspective.

Program Outcomes

As a partner school, your students will:

- Participate in a fully structured academic semester or year in Brazil
- Develop a global mindset and skills to tackle complex challenges.
- Gain an in-depth understanding of the international business landscape.
- Launch or accelerate a successful career in international business.
- Build a global network with peers, faculty and professionals.
- Be prepared for future global leadership roles.
- Earn a dual certificate with academic recognition in their home countries and Latin America, including an FDC specialization certificate achieved by combining their home institution's credits with GBFP coursework.
