Why Linesight?

Flexibility

We offer flexible working options; hybrid home-office and/or client sites. Ultimately, this flexibility aims to maintain a work-life balance for our team members.

Career progression

Supporting career progression, and personal and professional development are key priorities at Linesight. We invest in our people in a range of ways to support them in excelling in their role and chosen field.

Culture (DE&I, CSR, Social)

Our regional DE&I teams and Employee Resource Groups produce a variety of engaging learning opportunities throughout the year, as part of our commitment to true inclusivity and diversity. We have regional CSR teams in place around the globe who work with local organisations to provide support through fundraising and volunteering, and have a positive impact in the communities in which we work.

Mobility

At Linesight, internal mobility is actively encouraged, and there are many opportunities to travel to client sites when working from one of our main offices, or the ability to work on a client site in a new location for project durations.
