

table topic:

Share a time where you were the minority in attendance.

How did that make you feel?

table topic:

What aspect of your culture/ family history makes you the most proud?

table topic:

What does empathy mean to you? How have you tried to increase your empathy?

table topic:

How do you try to make a difference in your life and/or the lives around you?

table topic:

What questions do you have about diversity, inclusion, etc. that you would like to ask others at the table?

table topic:

Tell us about the first time you realized you were made to feel different. How did that make you feel?

What did you learn from that experience?

table topic:

What would a world filled with compassion, empathy, diversity and inclusion look like?

Conversely, is there an opportunity for "over-correction"?

table topic:

Have you ever felt "different" in a group setting because of your race/ethnicity/ gender/sexual orientation?

How did this affect you?

table topic:

What does it mean to be color-blind? Do you see it as a positive or negative thing?

table topic:

Dr. King's famous "I Have a Dream" speech had a core message for America to live up to its founders' message of "all men are created equal."

Is everyone equal in America?

table topic:

What makes you proud about what you have done to further inclusion or have you ever felt as if you could have done more?

table topic:

Have you ever found yourself uncomfortable with things being said around you, like "off-color" jokes or inappropriate comments? If so, how did you handle it?