

Exhibitor Media Guidelines

The American Academy of Dermatology is pleased to welcome exhibitors to the 2026 AAD Annual Meeting at the Colorado Convention Center. The 2026 AAD Annual Meeting will be held from Friday, March 27, through Tuesday, March 31.

The following guidelines for the 2026 AAD Annual Meeting apply to exhibitors and their marketing and public relations personnel.

Press Materials

- The AAD's Press Office is responsible solely for the extensive media activities conducted by the AAD and does not promote any products, companies, or services. Exhibitor press kits are not allowed in the Press Office.
- Exhibitors may distribute press releases or press kits to the media at their booths.
  - Exhibitors are not permitted to distribute press materials outside of the exhibit floor or in the hotels used by the AAD during the Annual Meeting.
  - Exhibitors may reference that their news was announced at the 2026 AAD Annual Meeting in Denver in their press materials. Any press materials referencing the AAD should be shared with mediarelations@aad.org by Friday, March 13, 2026.
  - Exhibitors are allowed to issue curtain-raiser news releases prior to the Annual Meeting as long as they do not include any of the research data that will be announced at the Annual Meeting.
  - Exhibitors are not permitted to use the AAD logo or boilerplate in press materials.
  - Press materials should not give the perception that the AAD is endorsing or recommending a product or service.

Release Time & Attribution

Unless otherwise stated, the official release time for material presented in scientific sessions is the date and start time of the educational session in which that material is presented. In cases in which the same material or topic is presented in two or more educational sessions, the earliest session will be considered the official release time.

Release Times

Press Registration

- Exhibitors who would like to invite media representatives to attend the meeting should advise them to visit the press registration media resources webpage. The AAD will only discuss the status of a press registration application with the applicant.
  - For press registration criteria, please review the AAD's Press Guidelines found here.
- Companies who wish to contact media covering the meeting may request a list of media who have consented for their information to be shared by contacting Rose Manzi at rmanzi@aad.org after Friday, February 27, 2026.
- The AAD does not issue press badges to publishers; advertising, marketing, public relations, or sales representatives; industry/exhibitor press officers and their public relations consultants; financial or business analysts; educational program developers (including writers and editors of continuing medical education content or its international equivalent); trade media management personnel; and individuals who are not covering or assigning articles for the meeting for a recognized news organization.
- The AAD has the right to inspect the credentials of anyone registering in the Press Office and reserves the right to refuse to register any individual as press.

Photography, Video, and Audio Recording

Due to the sensitive scientific nature of many products and services displayed within the exhibit hall, the Academy enforces strict policies regarding photography and videography as follows:

Photography, Videography/Streaming Video is only permitted under the following conditions:

- Exhibiting companies are required to use the AAD official photographer/videographer with the code: AAD26 or their own full-time staff (no contractors).
- Exhibitors may only photograph/videotape within the confines of their own contracted exhibit or meeting space.
- Exhibitors may not photograph another company's exhibit booth, personnel, or activities, or any other areas of the exhibit hall or AAD meeting space/venue.
- Exhibitors are prohibited from inviting outside photographers or videographers onto the exhibit floor to document their booth and/or their products or services. Anyone with a camera or recording device attempting to gain access to the exhibit floor will be denied entry. This includes non-registered staff from the exhibitor's company, local broadcast media, or public relations staff under contract with the exhibitor.

Conference attendees may take photographs during oral or poster presentations provided that the photographs are strictly for personal, non-commercial use and are not to be published in any form. Attendees are prohibited from using flash photography or otherwise distracting the presenters or members of the audience.

Attendees will be required to sign an attestation during registration stipulating that they agree that the photos will only be used for personal, non-commercial use. Speakers may use watermarks or include text on slides to indicate personal copyright of images.

Copyright Information

- The 2026 AAD Annual Meeting is wholly owned by the AAD and is not a public event. Programs presented at the Annual Meeting are for the education of attendees. Any unauthorized use of program content, which includes, but is not limited to, oral presentations, audiovisual materials used by speakers, poster abstracts, and program papers, outlines, and handouts, without the written consent of the AAD is prohibited and will be grounds for termination of meeting credentials, a ban from future meetings, and prosecution for infringement of applicable copyright law.
  - Under no circumstances may the information presented at the 2026 AAD Annual Meeting, with the exception of news releases, be republished in print, broadcast, or electronic media in its original format.
- The views expressed and the techniques presented by the speakers at AAD-sponsored educational meetings are not necessarily shared or endorsed by the AAD.
  - The AAD requires speakers to disclose all relevant personal/professional relationships and any unapproved or "off-label" uses of medical devices or pharmaceutical agents that they discuss, describe, or demonstrate during their presentations.

Interpretation & Application of Press Guidelines

All matters and questions not specifically covered by these guidelines are subject to the decisions of the AAD. Members of exhibiting organizations agree to comply with all subsequent reasonable rules adopted by the AAD.
