

AAD Global Education Day of Dermatology Policies & Guidelines

Global Educational Day of Dermatology at the 2021 AAD Annual Meeting is an opportunity for international societies who are member organizations of the International League of Dermatological Societies (ILDS) to hold an independent educational session the day before the official start of the AAD Annual Meeting on Thursday, March 18, 2021. These unique sessions provide international societies the opportunity to highlight their members' work and network with fellow dermatologist from around the world.

These sessions may or may not be eligible for continuing medical education credit; offering such is at the sole discretion of the sponsoring organization.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

The AAD Global Education Day of Dermatology provides an opportunity for international societies of the ILDS to hold an independent educational session to dermatologists attending the Annual Meeting. Each society will be responsible for developing all programming, promotion, advance and on-site registration, and for all program-related expenses not included in the participation fee. Including, but not limited to, speakers, additional audio visual, meeting room re-sets, and catering.

ELIGIBILITY

Confirmed ILDS members are eligible to hold a two (2) or four (4) hour session.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications must be received by October 15, 2020, to allow time for approval and ensure inclusion in the Annual Meeting program materials. Due to the extensive planning and logistics required, applications cannot be considered after this date.

- Global Education Day sessions may only be conducted upon approval of the Academy.
- Applications are processed on a first-come, first-served basis. The request requires a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choice of date. Space is limited for this activity
- Applications will not be accepted from meeting planning or other third-party companies.
- The Academy will notify the society of acceptance of the application and will provide an assigned time for their program by October 30, 2020.
- IMPORTANT! Full payment of the fee must be received within thirty (30) days of receipt of the AAD invoice or the Global Education Day Session will be considered to be cancelled and space will be released to another society. Invoices will be sent via email in November 2020.

AAD PROMOTION OF GLOBAL EDUCATION DAY:

In an effort to assist societies with promoting & building attendance for their session, a link from the 2021 AAD Annual Meeting website to each society's webpage detailing the program information will be provided. In addition, societies are encouraged to consider other additional advertising and marketing opportunities through the AAD. They can be found at: <https://www.aad.org/about/advertise-with-aad/other-opportunities/aad-mailing-lists>. These promotional activities are in addition to the COMPLIMENTARY mailing lists available to you by the AAD as noted in the PARTICIPATION FEE AND INCLUSIONS section. Societies are also highly encouraged to promoting and marketing on their own.

SOCIETY PROMOTION

International societies may promote their sessions by any of the aforementioned means, as well as, display and/or distribute flyers, meeting agenda & materials, from their designated table located immediately outside of the meeting room where their session is being conducted. Flyers, promotional items, etc. may not be distributed from any other part of the meeting facility.

REQUIRED DISCLAIMERS

The following statement should appear on any promotional material:

"The content of this session and opinions expressed by presenters are those of the respective presenting society or presenters and do not represent an endorsement by, nor imply that the session content has been evaluated or approved by the American Academy of Dermatology."

AAD Global Education Day of Dermatology Policies & Guidelines

Promotional materials of any kind may not use the Academy's logo, meeting graphics, or name/mention the American Academy of Dermatology (AAD) or the Annual Meeting. Wording such as "presented in conjunction with," "preceding" or "prior to the Academy Meeting" is prohibited. The only exception is that presenting Society may reference "[Society Name] Global Education Day Session, [Date, Time] in the Moscone Convention Center (San Francisco, CA) at the Annual Meeting." These rules apply to materials developed for use before, during, and after the Annual Meeting.

MEETING PROGRAM:

The creation of each society's session program and content is the responsibility of the society directly. The AAD will include information/link regarding society meetings in the Annual Meeting Advance Announcement. The AAD will include detailed information on the AAD Annual Meeting website and on the Annual Meeting Mobile App. This listing will include the society name, session title, location, and time for each session. Also included will be a link to the Society's website or a PDF of their program including information on how to register. This information will be needed by November 4, 2020.

PRODUCT DEMONSTRATIONS:

Live subject demonstrations for the purpose of demonstrating techniques that involve equipment, devices, or prescription pharmaceuticals is prohibited. Over The Counter (OTC) cosmetics and non-prescription skin care products may be demonstrated.

OWNERSHIP OF COPYRIGHT FOR CONTENT OF GLOBAL EDUCATIONAL DAY EDUCATIONAL SESSION

PRESENTATIONS:

Copyright of the content presented at the Global Education Day of Dermatology shall be owned by the individual society's Presenter(s) with all rights intact. The Global Education Day of Dermatology session presenter is responsible for obtaining copyright permissions and licenses for materials previously copyrighted that will be used as part of the Global Education Day of Dermatology program.

REGISTRATION AND HOUSING FOR THE 2021 AAD ANNUAL MEETING:

Attendees, speakers and guests of your society's session are NOT REQUIRED to be registered for the AAD Annual Meeting; however, the AAD highly-encourages everyone to register and stay for the Annual Meeting.
