About the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing ACT 2006 (AML/CTF Act)

In 2006 the Federal Government enacted the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (AML/CTF Act). The purpose of this legislation is to enable Australia’s financial sector to maintain international business relationship, detect and prevent money laundering and terrorism financing by meeting the needs of law enforcement agencies and to bring Australia into line with international standards. As MAP is a reporting entity pursuant to the AML/CTF Act, we must meet stringent investor identification and verification requirements.
