

Ton van Nimwegen

Date of birth: 7 January 1969

Nationality: Dutch

Ton van Nimwegen was appointed to the Executive Board as Chief Operations Officer of ABN AMRO Bank N.V on 1 December 2023 for a period of four years. His current term of appointment ends at the close of the annual general meeting in 2028.

Ton has approximately twenty-eight years of national and international banking and finance experience, of which thirteen years at ABN AMRO and for the last thirteen years at Rabobank. Before he took office as Chief Operations Officer at Rabobank Netherlands, he worked as regional director for Rabobank Netherlands and he was interim chairman of two local banks. Furthermore, he has experience leading Rabobank Brazil and large departments within Rabobank and ABN AMRO in Brazil, Hong Kong, Singapore and South-Africa. He developed his career across different areas of banking and financial markets, including wholesale, financial institutions, corporates and global markets and relationship banking.

In 2017, Ton became Chief Operations Officer at Rabobank Netherlands. In this role he led Rabobank Netherlands's Operations domain, most recently with more than five thousand employees in thirty locations. He was responsible for the operations regarding (i) payments, (ii) lending, (iii) investment products / savings / insurance, (iv) facilities, (v) procurement and vendor management, (vi) first line risk and (vii) process management.

In the past, Ton was a member of the elite special forces unit of the Royal Netherlands Army.

Education:

- Ph.D. Economics, Nyenrode University Breukelen, The Netherlands (2002)
- RC Certified Controller, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands (1996)
- Drs Business Economics, Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands (1992)
- BBA Business Administration, Nyenrode University Breukelen, The Netherlands (1990)

Other positions:

- Chair of the Board of Trustees of the International School of Amsterdam