

Jurgen Stegmann

Date of birth: 14 August 1960

Nationality: Dutch

Jurgen Stegmann obtained a degree in Corporate and Civil Law from the Erasmus University Rotterdam.

He began his career in 1984 at MeesPierson (Bank Mees & Hope) and held various positions before becoming Managing Director Risk Management at Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V. in 1996 and Chairman of its Credit Committee (member since 1994).

In 1998, Mr Stegmann became Member of the Managing Board of Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V. and Generale Bank Nederland B.V. In this role he was primary responsible for credit and counterparty risk.

In 2000 Mr Stegmann joined NIBC Bank N.V. as Vice-Chairman and Chief Risk Officer. In this role he was responsible for risk management, foreign offices, operations (2000-2005), financial authorities and rating agencies.

From 2008 until 2011 and from 2015 onwards Mr Stegmann renders consultancy and advisory services (strategy, finance, risk management, governance) for midsized and large corporates via Stegmanagement B.V., of which he was and still is owner and Executive Director.

From 2011 until 2015 Mr Stegmann was Chief Financial Officer at Robeco Groep N.V. and in such capacity responsible for finance, risk, legal, strategy and group services.

Education:

- Corporate and Civil Law (1978-1982), Erasmus University Rotterdam
- Master in Finance (1988-1990), Tilburg Institute for Academic Studies
- Executive Management Program (1994), INSEAD
- Nyenrode New Board Program (2010-2011)
- Boardroom Dynamics at Harvard Faculty Club/Decision Institute (2015)
- International Directors Programme (2015-2016), INSEAD

Supervisory Positions:

- Member of the Supervisory Board and member of the Audit Committee of Stichting Woonstad Rotterdam

Executive Positions:

- Executive Director/owner of Stegmanagement B.V.

Most important former positions:

- Chief Financial Officer of Robeco Groep N.V. (2011-2015)
- Vice-Chairman and Chief Risk Officer of NIBC Bank N.V. (2000-2008)
- Member of the Managing Board of Fortis Bank (Nederland) N.V. and Generale Bank Nederland B.V (1998-2000)